ELECTRICS DEPARTMENT

Basic electricity:

Electricity is the flow of electrons from one place to another. Electrons can flow through any material, but does so more easily in some than in others. How easily it flows is called resistance. The resistance of a material is measured in Ohms.

Matter can be broken down into:

- Conductors: electrons flow easily. Low resistance.
- Semi-conductors: electron can be made to flow under certain circumstances. Variable resistance according to formulation and circuit conditions.
- Insulator: electrons flow with great difficulty. High resistance.

Since electrons are very small, as a practical matter they are usually measured in very large numbers. A Coulomb is $6.24 \times 10^{18}$ electrons. However, electricians are mostly interested in electrons in motion. The flow of electrons is called current, and is measured in AMPS. One amp is equal to a flow of one coulomb per second through a wire.

Making electrons flow through a resistance requires an attractive force to pull them. This force, called Electro-Motive Force or EMF, is measured in volts. A Volt is the force required to push 1 Amp through 1 Ohm of resistance.

As electrons flow through a resistance, it performs a certain amount of work. It may be in the form of heat or a magnetic field or motion, but it does something. This work is called Power, and is measured in Watts. One Watt is equal to the work performed by 1 Amp pushed by 1 Volt through a resistance.

NOTE:

AMPS is amount of electricity
VOLTS is the Push, not the amount.
OHMS slows the flow
WATTS is how much gets done

There are 2 standard formulae that describe these relationships.

Ohm's Law: Where

R = Resistance (ohms)
E = Electro-motive Force (volts)
=>I = Intensity of Current (amps) R = E / I

To express work done: Power formula (PIE Law):

TEAM NUMBER: _____ (TBA at Captains Meeting)

First Game Time: _____ (TBA at Captains Meeting)

 TEAM CAPTAINS PLEASE READ THIS COMPLETELY *****

Welcome to the 27th Annual High Voltage Classic (HVC)!

As team captains you play an important role in the operation and success of HVC. As the representative for your team, your responsibility is to ensure that all members of your team are properly informed on all aspects of the tournament. In order to allow you to complete your task, we have provided you with the summarized information shown below.

Thank you in advance for your help and cooperation in the 27th Annual HVC.

Team Eligibility

- ☐ Your team must collect and have with them a minimum of $250.00 in sponsored pledges in order to participate in the tournament. All proceeds will go to the Heart and Stroke Foundation.
- ☐ All pledges are to be submitted before your team's first game.
- ☐ Enclosed are 15 pledge sheets to be distributed one set per player.
- ☐ If additional pledge sheets are required, call Jordan at (306) 873-9541.
- ☐ Enclosed team roster is to be completed and returned prior to March 20th, 2012.
- ☐ Maximum of 15 players per team and all players must be a minimum of 18 years of age.
- ☐ The High Voltage Classic Waiver must be signed by all participating team members and submitted prior to your team's first game.

Registration Process

- ✓ Return team roster prior to March 20th, 2012
- ✓ As noted prior, your team must collect and have with them a minimum of $250.00
- ✓ All pledges are to be submitted ½ hour before your team's first game
- ✓ The team waiver form must be submitted, signed by all participating team players, prior to your first game.

Frequently Asked Questions for a Fixed Equity Loan

Q. Do I have to sign and return the documents to Navy Federal?

A. Yes. Listed below are the documents enclosed in this package that will have to be signed and returned to Navy Federal if you intend to proceed.

- Request of Transcript of Tax Returns
- Authorization for the Social Security Administration to Amend Social Security Number (SSN) verification
- Member/Borrower Signature Authorization
- Electronic Payment Authorization (if applicable)

We recommend you retain the remaining documents for your records.

Q. Is my application approved?

A. These documents do not constitute a final loan approval.

Q. Are there any closing costs?

A. Yes, estimated only certain loan or third parties including, but not limited to, costs regarding appraisal, government agencies, and costs assessed, appraisers and consultation associations. For loan amounts up to $250,000, these third-party fees typically range between $1,500 and $1,700. Closing costs depend on the location of the property, property type, and the amount of the equity loan. Your equity loan Processor will provide you with any guidance concerning third party costs charged on your loan.

Q. Are these my closing documents?

A. No. The Estimate documents have been sent to you as part of the disclosure requirements and they do not constitute a final approval. The figures and costs are estimates based on your original application.

Q. What costs "Annual Percentage Rate" report?

A. The Annual Percentage Rate (APR) is the based yearly cost of credit over the loan to the loan, expressed as a single percentage amount. The APR Estimate on the Loan Estimate in costs higher have the interest rate on your loan because you may be paying some closing costs (e.g., government recording and transfer tax fees).

Q. I have questions concerning my credit score.

A. We are required to forward certain information regarding your credit score. Should you have any questions, contact the costs reporting agency at the number and telephone number provided on the Notice to Home Loan Applicant (enclosure) located to you separately.

I AIN'T GONNA WORK ON MAGGIE'S FARM NO MORE
By Bob Dylan

I ain't gonna work on Maggie's farm no more
No, I ain't gonna work on Maggie's farm no more
Well, I wake up in the morning,
Fold my hands and pray for rain
I got a head full of ideas
That are driving me insane
It's a shame the way she makes me scrub the floor
I ain't gonna work on Maggie's farm no more.

I ain't gonna work for Maggie's brother no more
No, I'm gonna work for Maggie's brother no more
Well, he hands you a dollar
He hands you a dime
He makes you work a spell
If you're feelin' good time
Then he fines you every time you slam the door
I ain't gonna work for Maggie's brother more.

I ain't gonna work on Maggie's farm no more
I ain't gonna work on Maggie's farm no more
Well, I try my best
To be just like I am
But everybody wants you
To be just like them
They say sing while you slave and I just get bored
I ain't gonna work on Maggie's farm no more.

Asiago Cheese Bread

Food

By Ruby Pumm on September 30 2008
★★★★★ 2 Reviews

Prep Time: 30 mins Total Time: 3 hours Yield: 1 loaf

About This Recipe

"Let me know if it's good! Update: I tryed it and did not like it. Found it to dry and hard. I found this recipe listed on several web sites but no one had rated it. Use your own judgement, maybe you know how to fix it.

Ingredients

- 9 ounces water
- 2 tablespoons extra virgin olive oil
- 1 1/4 teaspoons salt
- 1 tablespoon sugar
- 1 cup asiago cheese, shredded, lightly packed
- 1/3 cup parmesan cheese or 1/3 cup romano cheese, shredded, lightly packed
- 1/2 cup yellow cornmeal
- 2 3/4 cups bread flour
- 2 teaspoons active dry yeast

Directions

1. Place ingredients in bread machine according to bread machine recommendation.
2. Set cycle for basic bread or white.
3. Makes 1 1/2 lb. loaf.

Troubleshooting Steps

The steps below will help you resolve common faxing problems.

- Switch off fax machine and unplug power adapter from device and from wall outlet
  - Let fax machine remain off for 60 seconds
- Try a different phone cord between the fax machine and the Vonage device
- Eliminate any splitters between the fax machine and the Vonage device.
- Connect Fax machine directly to the Vonage device, bypassing any home wiring.
- If using an All-In-One device, temporarily disconnect device from PC

Maybe its because both of the restaurants are colorful and has a playground area for kids.

At last, advertising company s often use well known cartoon characters also to help sell their products. Company s know if a child just sees a plain cereal box, the child will not want it, but if they put cartoon characters on the front, the child may want their product.

As I was saying, advertising has much power over what parents buy for their kids. They don t care on how many calories are in the products or how nutritious it may be, all they are trying to do is sell their products and say that their product is the best to buy. While food companies influences children to buy their product, children are influencing their parents also.

Appeal by a young offender, J., from a conviction for theft. J. was 14 years old at the time of the offence. The complainant alleged that, after discovering her basement door open and her video machine missing, she suspected J., her daughter's friend. The complainant went to find J. and located him on the street near his house. When confronted, J. denied taking the video machine. The

AMS 15 (Spring 2019)
TAKE-HOME FINAL EXAM

Choose any of the keywords, phrases or questions listed below. For each item you choose, write a brief (one-paragraph) answer that addresses all of the following:

(a) WHAT is it?

(b) WHERE did it appear? (Indicate sources from class readings, film excerpts or lecture discussions.)

(c) WHY is it significant?

* Support your main points with specific examples.
* Make sure that your answers are in your own words.
  (If you need to include key phrases from the readings, use quotation marks.)
* Your answers should be concise and to the point.
  (Padding your responses with needless verbiage will not earn any points.)

Schizophrenia

Schizophrenia is a serious mental illness that affects 2 4 million American adults over the age of 18 Most often it appears in men in their late teens or early twenties while it appears in women in their late twenties or early thirties.

Schizophrenia impairs a person s ability to function to their potential when it is not treated Possible causes include aspects of brain chemistry and structure as well as environmental causes

Because the illness may cause unusual inappropriate and sometimes unpredictable and disorganized behavior people who are not effectively treated are often shunned and the targets of social prejudice The apparent erratic behavior is often caused by the delusions and hallucinations that are symptoms of schizophrenia Along with medication psychosocial rehabilitation and other community-based support can help those with schizophrenia go on to lead meaningful and satisfying lives

Schizophrenia is often mischaracterized as an untreatable disease associated with violent behavior and many untrue and unfortunate stereotypes have developed Most individuals living with schizophrenia are not violent.

Like any other illness schizophrenia can often have a profoundly negative effect on a person's life on their families and on their communities if not addressed Suicide is a serious risk for those with schizophrenia occurring at a much higher rate than the general population However the risk of suicide can be greatly reduced through the use of medication

IMPORTANT INFORMATION ABOUT THE LIFELINE PROGRAM: Assurance Wireless is a Lifeline supported service. Lifeline is a federal benefit, and only eligible subscribers may enroll. Consumers who willfully make false statements in order to obtain the benefit can be punished by fine or imprisonment or can be excluded from the program. One Lifeline discounted service (landline or wireless) is available per household. A household is one or more individuals who live together at the same address and share income and expenses. A household is not permitted to receive Lifeline benefits from multiple providers. Violation of this rule is punishable as fraud that is subject to federal rules and will result in de-enrollment from the Lifeline program and potential prosecution by the United States government. Lifeline is a non-transferable benefit. Service cannot be transferred to any individual, including another eligible low income consumer.

4 SIGN NATURE

By signing below, I certify under penalty of perjury that the information contained within this Application is true and correct to the best of my knowledge.

I understand that qualifying Federal Program or meet the income qualifications to establish eligibility for Lifeline. If proof of eligibility is required, I have provided the required documentation as stated in Section 2.

If I have provided a temporary address, I must notify Assurance Wireless with in 30 days of any change of address. Our Father which art in heaven, hallowed be thy name,
thy kingdom come
thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven
Give us this day our daily bread
And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive them that trespass against us
And lead us not into temptation but deliver us from evil
[For thine is the kingdom,
the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever ]

Random Stuff Sent From Your Fax Machine
Fax something interesting toll free to 1-855-330-1239 or 1 213-294-2943

To the right are pages that folks have faxed us recently. Click any thumbnail to see the large version and rate it for interestingness.

You can fax something interesting to 1-855-330-1239 (it's a toll-free number if you're in the USA) or 1 213 294-2943 (long distance to Los Angeles, California) and it should appear here within a couple of minutes. (your boss will never notice... maybe) Keep it clean & legal.

Fax single-page documents with no cover sheet. If you fax more than one page, only the last page will appear here. We try to snip off the top few pixels of the page where your company name and fax number should appear, but make no promises that this will actually work.

Privacy Policy: We hate spam and junk faxes, and will absolutely not send you any unsolicited e-mail or faxes. We won't share your information with marketers or anyone else.

How Can I Test My Fax Machine?

Just hooked up a new fax machine and I'd like to test it, but to make a call I'd have to pay. How can I do that?

Probably you want to test your fax machine by sending a fax from it and receiving a fax with it. Here's how to do both:

To test the send functionality of your fax machine, send a one page fax to 1-855-330-1239 (a toll-free number in the United States). When it's finished transmitting, point your web browser to faxtest.com, a fun web site that displays whatever is sent to that number. Within a minute, your fax should appear on the site. Click the thumbnail to see a large version.

To test the receive functionality of your fax machine, point your web browser to faxzero.com, a site that lets you get faxes for free in many places, including the United States and Canada. Within a few minutes, your fax machine should ring — hopefully, it will automatically answer and spit out the test fax.

Windows® Fax and Scan

One place to scan and fax your documents

FAX: You can send and receive faxed documents on your computer without using a fax machine. You can also print, e-mail, or save a copy of your faxes.

To get started:

1. Connect a phone line to your computer.

   If your computer needs an external modem, connect the phone to the modem, and then connect the modem to your computer.

2. On the toolbar, click New Fax.

3. Follow the instructions in the setup wizard to connect to a fax modem, and then, when you're finished, create your fax.

To connect to a fax server instead of a modem, contact your system administrator. For more help with faxing, click the Help button on the toolbar.

SCAN: After you add a scanner to your computer, you can preview documents or pictures before you scan them, and then adjust your scan settings for better results. You can also fax or e-mail scanned files to someone else.

To get started:

1. Connect your scanner to your computer by following the instructions that came with your scanner, and then place a document or picture on the scanner.

2. In Windows Fax and Scan, at the bottom of the left pane, click Scan.

3. On the toolbar, click New Scan.

4. Choose the scan settings you want to use, and you're ready to scan.

2011 AP® ENGLISH LITERATURE AND COMPOSITION FREE-RESPONSE QUESTIONS

Question 2

(Suggested time—40 minutes This question counts as one-third of the total essay section score.)

The following passage is from the novel Middlemarch by George Eliot, the pen name of Mary Ann Evans (1819–1880). In the passage, Rosamond and Tertius Lydgate, a recently married couple, confront financial difficulties.

Read the passage carefully. Then write a well-developed essay in which you analyze how Eliot portrays these two characters and their complex relationship as husband and wife. You may wish to consider such literary devices as narrative perspective and selection of detail.

Rosamond colored deeply. "Have you not asked Papa for money?" she said as soon as she could speak.

"No."

Line "Then I must ask him!" she said, releasing her hands from Lydgate's and rising to stand at two yards' distance from him.

"No, Rosy," said Lydgate decisively. "It is not late to do that. The inventory will be begun tomorrow. Remember it is a mere security. It will make no difference, it is a temporary affair. I insist upon it that your father shall not know unless I choose to tell him." added Lydgate with a more peremptory emphasis.

This certainly was natural, but Rosamond had thrown him back an evil expectation as to what she would do: a the way of quiet steady disobedience. The enkindlness seemed unpardonable to her: she was not given to weeping and disliked it: but now her chin and lips began to tremble and the tears welled up. Perhaps it was not possible for Lydgate, under the double stress of a inward maternal difficulty and of his own proud resistance to them, fating consequences to imagine fully what this sudden trial was to a young creature who had known only ag but indulgence and whose dreams had all been of new indulgence, more exactly of her taste. But he did wish to spare her as much as he could: and her tears cut him to the heart. He could not speak again. Immediately but Rosamond did not go on sobbing: she tried to conquer her agitation and wiped away her tears, continuing to look before her at the mantelpiece.

"Try not to grieve, darling," said Lydgate, turning his eyes up towards her. That she had chosen to turn away from him at this moment? Her trouble made everything harder to say: but he must absolutely go on. "We must frame ourselves to do what is necessary. It is I who have been a fault. I ought to have seen that I could not afford to live as this way. But many things have told against me in my practice, and it really was way of living. We shall weather it. When I have given this security I shall have time to look about me: and you are so clever that if you turn your mind to managing you will school me into carefulness. I have been a thoughtless rascal about squaring proves—but some time sit down and forgive me."

Lydgate was bowing his neck under the yoke like a creature who has taken but who had resisted for a while, it is remembered that it was the first time that he had spoken the last words in an imploring tone. Rosamond returned to the altar by his side. His self blame gave her some hope that he would attend to her opinion, and she said: "Why can you not put off having the inventory made? You can send the men away tomorrow when they come."

"I shall not send them away," said Lydgate, the peremptoriness rising again. "What is the use to explain?

"If we left Middlemarch, there would be no use to explain, and that would do as well."

"But we are not going to leave Middlemarch."

"I am sure, Tertius, it would be much better to do so. Why are we not to go to London? Or near Durham, where your family is known?"

"We can go nowhere without money, Rosamond."

"You friends would not wish you to be without money. And surely these odious tradesmen might be made to understand that and to wait till you would make proper representations to them."

"That is idle, Rosamond," said Lydgate angrily. "You must learn to take my judgement on questions you don't understand. I have made necessary arrangements and they must be carried out. As to friends, I have no expectations whatever from them and shall not ask them for anything."

Rosamond sat perfectly still. The thought in her mind was that if she had known how Lydgate would behave she would never have married him.

"We have not time to waste now," he went on.

• DO YOU WANT TO MANUALLY ANSWER EVERY INCOMING FAX? (MANUAL MODE)

In Manual Mode your Brother machine will not answer the line automatically unless you are using your telephone company's Distinctive Ring service.

Click here to see how to program Distinctive Ring

If you are not using Distinctive Ring, Manual Mode requires you to answer every incoming call by lifting the handset of a telephone that shares the line with your Brother machine.

- If the incoming call is a voice call, then complete the call as you normally would.
- If you answer the call on a telephone connected to the Brother machine's EXT jack (socket) and hear a beep every 3 seconds indicating an automatic fax, or silence indicating a manual fax, press Fax Start and choose Receive to receive the fax.
- If you answer the call on an extension telephone and hear a beep every 3 seconds indicating an automatic fax, or silence indicating a manual fax, press * 6 1 (* 9 1 for New Zealand) on the telephone's dial pad, wait until you hear your Brother machine's receiving tones (chirping sounds), and hang up the telephone's handset.

  When you hear your Brother machine's receiving tones, replace the handset and your machine will receive and print the fax.

If your Brother machine's Easy Receive or Fax Detect function is handset, then you do not have to press Fax Start to receive a fax. Simply wait until you hear your Brother machine's receiving tones and hang up the handset and your machine should receive the incoming fax automatically.

To put your Brother machine in Manual Mode follow these steps:

1. Press (Settings)
2. Press All Settings. (This step might be skipped in some models.)
3. Press the Up or Down arrow key to display Fax.
4. Press Fax.
5. Press the Up or Down arrow key to display Setup Receive.
6. Press Setup Receive.
7. Press the Up or Down arrow key to display Receive Mode.

How Can I Test My Fax Machine?

I just hooked up a new fax machine, and I'd like to test it, just to make sure it works. How can I do that?

Presumably, you want to test your fax machine by sending a fax from it and receiving a fax with it. Here's how to do both:

To test the send functionality of your fax machine, use it to send a fax to 1-855 930 1239 (a toll-free number in the United States.) When it's finished transmitting, point your web browser to Fax Toys — it's a fun web site that displays whatever is faxed to that number. Within a minute, your fax should appear on the site. Click the thumbnail to see a large version.

To test the receive functionality of your fax machine, point your web browser to FaxZero - this site lets you send faxes for free to anywhere in the United States and Canada. Within a few minutes, your fax machine should ring — hopefully it will automatically answer and spit out the test fax.

How can five cents help save a child's life? Let me tell you ....

Dear Mr. Mangiaffico, I've included a nickel to make a point.

You and I both know that a single nickel won't go far in the fight against blood cancers. But every nickel can quickly add up. And if you invest those nickels in blood cancer research that is searching for cures, you could save not only one child but thousands of patients!

Since The Leukemia & Lymphoma Society was founded in 1949, donations from people like you have helped us invest millions in the fight to find cures for blood cancers. Today, 89% of children under 15 with the most common childhood leukemia will survive with treatment.

But we must find cures for all blood cancers. Please won't you help save a child or adult by sending us a donation today? Thank you very much for your generosity. With your help we will continue to put your dollars to work providing help and hope to thousands!

The NCO Creed

No one is more professional than I. I am a Noncommissioned Officer, a leader of soldiers. As a Noncommissioned Officer, I realize that I am a member of a time honored corps, which is known as "The Backbone of the Army" I are proud of the Corps of Noncommissioned Officers and will at all times conduct myself so as to bring credit upon the Corps, the Military Service and my country regardless of the situation in which I find myself I will not use my grade or position to attain pleasure, profit, or personal safety Competence is my watchword. My two basic responsibilities will always be uppermost in my mind – accomplishment of my mission and the welfare of my soldiers I will strive to remain tactically and technically proficient. I am aware of my role as a Noncommissioned Officer I will fulfill my responsibilities inherent in that role. All soldiers are entitled to outstanding leadership; I will provide that leadership. I know my soldiers and I will always place their needs above my own. I will communicate consistently with my soldiers and never leave them uninformed. I will be fair and impartial when recommending both rewards and punishment.

Officers of my unit will have maximum time to accomplish their duties; they will not have to accomplish mine. I will earn their respect and confidence as well as that of my soldiers. I will be loyal to those with whom I serve; seniors, peers, and subordinates alike. I will exercise initiative by taking appropriate action in the absence of orders I will not compromise my integrity, nor my moral courage. I will not forget, nor will I allow my comrades to forget that we are professionals, Noncommissioned Officers, leaders!

The Army Goes Rolling Along

First to fight for the right,
And to build the Nation s might,
And The Army Goes Rolling Along
Proud of all we have done,
Fighting till the battle s won,
And the Army Goes Rolling Along.

Then it s Hi! Hi! Hey!
The Army's on its way
Count off the cadence loud and strong (TWO! THREE!)
For where e'er we go,
You will always know
That The Aamy Goes Rolling Along.

Ordnance Song

Arms for the love of America
They speak in a foreign land, with weapons in every hand.
What ever they try we've got to reply in language that they understand.
Arms for the love of America
And for the love of every mother's son
Who is depending on the work that must be done
By the man, behind the man, behind the gun

Support students like Sebastian

* * * * * * * *

"Receiving my scholarship was just as exciting and relieving as receiving admission to GW, my first choice school. My parents made it clear that I would only be able to attend GW if I received financial support so when I found out I was awarded a scholarship, I knew immediately that my life was going to change. However, I didn't know then just how amazing the journey would be along the way."

Subj: RI Hispanic panel offerings
Date 12/18/2007 2:43:38 PM Central Standard Time
From. Kimberly.Kaplan@kfgroup.com
To: ChrisAsesor@aol.com

Hi Steve – Below is additional information regarding our Hispanic panel capabilities

Today's RI core Panel has ~2,200 Hispanics of which 28% speak ultimately Spanish which we refer to as unacculturated Hispanics We are in the process of recruiting more Hispanics into the panel, particularly unacculturated Hispanics Hence, there is a skew to the acculturated Hispanic group in our panel

We could likely provide a composite or category penetration buying rate, purchase frequency etc for Hispanics in total and for the general market. We may be able to provide this for 4 local panel markets in aggregate (Dallas Houston San Antonio & West Texas/New Mexico) depending upon sample size A basic purchase trend report costs ~$12 000 and can be delivered within 4 weeks following receipt of project authorization and complete specifications Final pricing dependent upon scope

Secondly, RI just completed a survey among its existing panelists & newly recruited unacculturated Hispanic households This Hispanic Attitude Link Survey covers 4 main topics to reveal the drivers of Hispanic purchasing behavior

- Shopping Habits – Discover channel preference trip frequency and factors driving store selection as well as identify attitudes about brand loyalty and key influencers of product selection coupons, displays, samples, etc
- Cooking, Eating and Drinking Habits – Uncover impact of acculturation related to cooking from scratch vs. frozen foods eating in vs. dining out, and flavors and types of foods most preferred by Hispanics.
- Health & Wellness – Find out the importance Hispanics place on exercise eating fresh foods and reading nutrition labels
- Consumer Profile and Media Usage – In addition to basic demographics, also includes language usage/preference time spent watching Spanish language TV/ reading Spanish language newspapers/magazines

Responses to this survey are broken out by acculturated Hispanics and unacculturated Hispanics Survey results are available today for $15,000.

Lastly a demographic profile report on a category / foods would answer generally includes the following information and answers questions like.

- Household Income
- Female / Male Head Age
- Female / Male Head Occupation
- Age/Presence of Children
- Household Size
- Female / Male Head Work Week
- Female / Male Head Education
- Lifestage

1. Does my brand attract a younger/older buyer than my competitor?
2. Does my brand attract a more financially affluent consumer?
3. Even though some of my buyers have children how much of my brand's overall volume do they account for?
4. Larger households appear to be a large part of my brand's buyer base but do they only buy on deal?

The average demographic report is ~$15 000 and takes 2-4 weeks deliver following receipt of project authorization and complete specifications. Cost and timing will be finalized upon project scope and will be driven by the number of products analyzed, data period level of analysis included etc

Please feel free to call me if you would like more information

Thank you
Kimberly

Print Quality Check

Check that the dotted lines forming the four color blocks are all visible with no gaps. If OK select (Yes) on the control panel. If gaps are visible select (No) on the control panel to start the cleaning process and follow the prompts on the LCD.

This Brother Inkjet machine has been finely tuned to provide excellent, accurate and long lasting printed pages when using Genuine Brother Innobella(TM) ink.

The use of non-Brother inks in this machine may potentially result in inferior output quality and/or machine damage.

Any required repairs for damages caused from using non-Brother inks in this machine may not be covered by the original machine limited warranty.

We strongly suggest you use only Genuine Brother Innobella(TM) inks when it is time for you to replace the ink cartridges.

Remove Adult Content

To remove the Adult menu option scroll over to "System" and click on the "Skin Settings" option. Next click on "Setup The Aeon Nox main menu." On the left hand side scroll down to the "Adult" section and uncheck the "Enabled" radio buttoo. This will remove the "Adult" section from the main menu.

Please Note: This will not provide any form of Parental Control. This only removes the section from the main menu. To setup Parental Controls follow our guide on "Setting Up Parental Controls."

Setting Up Parental Controls

There are a number of Adult add-ons installed. You could simply uninstall the add-ons or you could setup parental control. To setup parental control go to the "Addoos" sectioo from the main menu. Then click on "Programs" and then "Parental Controls" (it is a picture of a lock). The add-on will ask you to setup a password. The password will be a combinatioo of directions. Pick any combo you would like such as left,right,up,down (just make sure you remember what you pick). After setting up your password you will be able to set a lock on any addon you would like.

THE LIMITS OF Quantum

By Scott Aaronson

Quantum computers would be [illegible] at a few specific tasks but [illegible] problems they would [illegible] only modestly. This realization [illegible] fundamental physical principle

"Happy Physicists Develop Quantum Sticks," read a headline in the satirical weekly the Onion. By explaining a bizarre Schrödinger's Panda duality to [illegible] explained those unborn women's panda-pregnancy behavior that [illegible] and casual wear at the same time. Onion writers were apparently spoofing the breathless articles about quantum computing that have filled the popular science press for a decade.

A common mistake—and let me reassure the February 15 2007 issue of the Onion would agree that in principle quantum computers could rapidly solve a particularly difficult set of mathematical challenges called NP-complete problems, which even the best existing computers can't solve quickly so far as anyone knows). Quantum computers would supposedly achieve this feat not by being, overall and casual at the same time but by having hardware capable of processing every possible answer simultaneously.

If we really could build a magic computer capable of solving an NP-complete problem in a flash, the world would be a very different place. We could ask our magic computer to look for whatever patterns in the stock market best explain the recordings of the weather or test a mathematical theorem. Unlike with today's computers, finding these patterns would be comparable to understanding—given enough time—the nature of the problem. The magic computer can't [illegible] mathematical creativity

BUICK GMC

Dear Lawrence Yong Tan,

This is an important notice concerning anyone who may own a 2005 Buick Century or something similar. We are currently experiencing an unprecedented increase of pre-owned sales and our pre-owned inventory is being depleted. Because you are a preferred area customer we'd like to invite you to a special sales event being held this coming week starting Saturday February 18th, through Friday February 24th.

At this time, we are looking to purchase ANY and ALL price range vehicles however we are specifically looking for up to ten 2005 Buick Centurys for our pre-owned inventory.

Our deadline is February 24th to locate these vehicles.

YOU MAY BE ONE OF A HANDFUL OF INDIVIDUALS WHO MAY OWN A 2005 BUICK CENTURY OR ANOTHER VEHICLE WE ARE LOOKING FOR THAT IS IN GOOD CONDITION! THIS VEHICLE IS IN ITS PEAK TRADE CYCLE, AND WE ARE WILLING TO MAKE YOU AN AGGRESSIVE OFFER. THERE IS NO PURCHASE NECESSARY!

Receive up to $2,000 over current market value for your trade-in!*

With event discounts on new and used vehicles we feel confident that you can get into a new or newer vehicle with little or no out of pocket expense and monthly payments that fit your budget! This is the perfect time to upgrade your vehicle!

Please provide this letter on or before February 24th to receive the best trade-in offer we have seen in over 4 years for a 2005 Buick Century! You may also contact us at 866-593-1466 and ask for our Pre-owned Purchase Department. After February 24th, this offer will no longer be valid.

Sincerely,

Bret Moore

Bret Moore • General Sales Manager

We are in need of six Buick Centurys!

*Trade value may be less based on excessive mileage and vehicle wear & tear. See dealer for complete details. Offer expires 2[illegible]2012.

3.1 TRANSDUCER

A functional Block Diagram of the new transducer is shown in Figure 2. Figure 2 shows that the transducer assembly consists of projector, e hydrophone array, e pre-amplifier/filter assembly and a power supply. The projector provides the required source level to interrogate transponders and targets and it is also used to receive the LBL replies. Each of the receiving hydrophones will be connected to a pre-amplifier/filter assembly. The purpose of the pre amplifier/ filter assembly is to impedance match the hydrophones and to provide gain and noise reduction. A calibration signal is provided that enables the system to compensate for channel-to-channel phase (i.e. timing, uncertainty. The D C voltage for the electronics is provided on the calibration lines and then regulated by the power supply. All the lines to the transducer assembly are twisted shielded pairs. The reason for this is to aid in common mode rejection.

3.2 NS-011 MODIFICATIONS

A functional block diagram of the modified NS-011 is shown in Figure 3. Figure 3 shows the new boards to be added but does not include the mechanical changes. The mechanical modifications to the NS-011 include a new rear panel that will accommodate a new connector for the transducer and a connector for the attitude sensor interface. The NS-011 will also include a new SSBL front end card, a modification to the internal wiring, the addition of an SSBL receiver and a modification to the NS 011 software.

The new SSBL front end card will interface to the SSBL hydrophone array. The purpose of this card is to provide adjustable filtering, gain and signal integrity for each of the signal channels. This card also provides the calibration signal to the transducer assembly. The output of this card will feed to the SSBL receiver card.

The wiring modifications required are to wire the SSBL hydrophone array to the new SSBL front end card, wire the output of the SSBL front end card to the SSBL receiver and also to provide the stop pulses to the SSBL receiver card. Every stop pulse is provided to the SSBL card and the operator has the capability of selecting one combination of these stop pulses. The stop pulses identify the target or transponder reply whose bearing is being determined as well as triggering the SSBL receiver card that a bearing measurement is in process.

The SSBL Receiver card is a signal processing board that measures the time difference of arrival between each of the different SSBL hydrophone array pairs. These time differences of arrivals are sampled periodically and stored in a First-In-First-Out FIFO. When the LBL receiver channel detects the arrival of a signal a stop pulse is generated and sent to this board. If the stop pulse is one of the channels that the operator has selected then the set of time difference of arrivals are retrieved from the FIFO and sent to the main processor for formatting.

Adobe Acrobat PDF Files

Adobe® Portable Document Format (PDF) is a universal file format that preserves all of the fonts formatting colours and graphics of any source document, regardless of the application and platform used to create it.

Adobe PDF is an ideal format for electronic document distribution as it overcomes the problems commonly encountered with electronic file sharing

- Anyone, anywhere can open a PDF file. All you need is the free Adobe Acrobat Reader. Recipients of other file formats sometimes can't open files because they don't have the applications used to create the documents
- PDF files always print correctly on any printing device.
- PDF files always display exactly as created, regardless of fonts, software and operating systems. Fonts and graphics are not lost due to platform, software, and version incompatibilities
- The free Acrobat Reader is easy to download and can be freely distributed by anyone
- Compact PDF files are smaller than their source files and download a page at a time for fast display on the Web.

LLDC

The HP ENVY 110 e-All-in-One D411 series printer faxes without a phone line. The printer sends and receives emails using eFax®, a web-based faxing service. This service is free when you send up to 20 pages and receive up to 20 pages per month.

If you want to send or receive more pages per month, you can upgrade to the eFax Plus® service, and your account is charged a monthly fee.

When you use eFax®, your document is scanned by the printer, sent wirelessly to the eFax® server, and then on to the receiving fax number.

To use the eFax® brand service, the printer must have an Internet connection and Web Services must be enabled, so the printer can communicate with eFax® server.

Before you can use eFax® with your printer, you must perform the simple setup procedures described below. This is a one-time setup, allows the printer to communicate with eFax® server using your eFax® account information whenever you send and receive faxes.

eFax may not be available in all countries/regions.

Register with eFax®

Touch eFax on the printer Home screen to display the eFax® home screen.

Touch Register, then touch the Web Services checkbox to enable Web Services.

Create an account by following the onscreen instructions.

Touch Terms and Conditions to read the eFax® brand services agreement, then touch the I agree checkbox and click OK.

After connecting with the eFax® server, you are assigned the eFax® number that appears on the screen.

Touch Continue, and the eFax® home screen displays your eFax® number and a number entry keypad for sending faxes.

Although the area code may not be local to you, you do not incur any long-distance charges when sending and receiving faxes with this number.

Set up your printer with an existing eFax® number

Touch eFax on the printer Home screen to display the eFax® home screen. Enter your existing eFax® number in the area indicated below. Already have an eFax® number?

Enter the personal identification number (PIN) code for this account.

If you've forgotten your PIN, touch the indicated area to have it sent to the email address associated with your eFax® number.

Touch Enable to continue. Your eFax® number and PIN code is sent to eFax® for verification. After they are verified, your existing eFax® number is displayed on the eFax® home screen and you are ready for faxing.

If eFax® cannot verify the eFax® number and PIN you entered, log in to your eFax brand account at [illegible] and review your account information. You cannot fax using this number until the eFax® account information is verified on the printer.

After connecting with the eFax® server, you are assigned the eFax® number that appears on the screen.

Touch OK, and the eFax® home screen displays your eFax® number and a number entry keypad for sending faxes.

Jules: Well, there's this passage I've got memorized, sorta fits the occasion.
Ezekiel 25:17? "The path of the righteous man is beset on all sides by the iniquities of the selfish and the tyranny of evil men. Blessed is he who in the name of charity and good will shepherds the weak through the valley of darkness, for he is truly his brother's keeper and the finder of lost children. [begins pacing about the room] And I will strike down upon thee with great vengeance and furious anger those who attempt to poison and destroy my brothers. And you will know my name is the Lord. [pulls out his gun and aims at Brett] – when I lay my vengeance upon thee."
[Brett shrieks in horror as Jules and Vincent shoot him repeatedly]

Product Description

George Harrison was always known as the 'quiet Beatle' As part of the biggest band in pop history, he took a back seat to Paul McCartney and John Lennon, but his talent shone through in the composition of classic songs such as 'Something' and 'Here Comes The Sun' In his solo career he occasionally threatened to eclipse both John and Paul on the world stage and he joined forces with Bob Dylan Tom Petty Roy Orbison and Jeff Lynne to create the massively successful supergroup the Traveling Wilburys However the success of his professional life was often met by turmoil in his private life and the loss of first wife Patti to best friend Eric Clapton, the traumatic attempt on his life by a knife wielding intruder and his final struggle against cancer meant that George Harrison's life was nothing if not dramatic Bestselling author Marc Shapiro has exclusively interviewed friends and former colleagues of the enigmatic guitar legend This revealing biography reaffirms Harrison's importance as an innovative and hugely talented musician and shows that, as a member of the most important band ever, as well as in his multi faceted career after the Beatles George Harrison was no ordinary man

2 Read the story. Circle the verbs.
Rewrite the following story. Use the past tense.

John wants to withdraw money from his checking account. He uses the ATM at the grocery store. First, he puts his ATM card into the machine. Then he types in his PIN (personal identification number). The machine asks him how much money he wants. John types in $100.00. Five twenty-dollar bills come out of the machine. The machine asks John if he wants a receipt. John presses the button for "yes." John checks the receipt to make sure it's correct. Then he puts it in his wallet with his $100.00.

John wanted to withdraw money from his checking account

Evaluation and Management (E/M) Services

For the new patient subcategories, all of the three key components (history, examination and medical decision making) are required to meet or exceed the stated requirements to qualify for a particular level of evaluation and management service. For the established patient subcategories, two of the three key components are required to meet or exceed the stated requirements to qualify for a particular evaluation and management service. In the case where counseling and/or coordination of care dominates (more than 50%) the encounter and/or family encounter then one is considered the key or controlling factor to qualify for a particular level of evaluation and management service.

Please note that the following are abbreviated definitions. Please refer to your current CPT code book for further explanations and descriptions of the evaluation and management services.

New Patient Codes

| Fax Connected to Active Telephone Wall Jack | PASS |
| Phone Cord Connected to Correct Port on Fax | FAIL |

The phone cord is connected to the port labeled "2-EXT" on the back of your HP device

Please check the connection to the port (see figure below) and then run the test again.

Make sure you use the phone cord provided in the box to connect to the "1-LINE" port.

Connect to a telephone jack that works for analog fax calls.

Send a test fax and check the connection.

If you are sharing the phone line with DSL service, make sure the DSL filter is connected properly and is not filtering the signal.

If you are sharing the phone line with a voice mail service, make sure the voice mail service does not change your fax settings.

For more information, see the electronic Help that came with your HP device.

Prayer to St. Joseph over 1900 years old

O St. Joseph whose protection is so great, so strong, so prompt before the Throne of God, I place in you all my interests and desires. O St. Joseph do assist me by your powerful intercession and obtain for me from your Divine Son all spiritual blessings through Jesus Christ, Our Lord; so that having engaged here below your Heavenly power I may offer my Thanksgiving and Homage to the most Loving of Fathers. O St. Joseph, I never weary contemplating you and Jesus asleep in your arms. I dare not approach while He reposes near your heart. Press him in my name and kiss His fine Head for me, and ask Him to return the Kiss when I draw my dying breath. St. Joseph, Patron of departing souls, pray for us. Amen

Say for nine consecutive mornings for anything you may desire. It has seldom been known to fail

This prayer was found in the fiftieth year of Our Lord Jesus Christ. In 1500's it was sent by the Pope to Emperor Charles when he was going into battle.

Whoever reads this prayer or hears it or carries it, will never die a sudden death, nor be drowned, nor will poison take effect on them. They will not fall into the hands of the enemy nor be burned in any fire, nor will they be defeated in battle.

Make this prayer known everywhere.

Predators

Rugged mercenary Royce (Adrien Brody) inherits command of an elite team of human fighters including dorky but dangerous Edwin (Topher Grace) and tough but beautiful Isabelle (Alice Braga) as they are hunted by a race of ruthless alien trackers known as Predators. Director Nimrod Antal's action-exploitation vehicle also stars Laurence Fishburne and an uncredited Danny Trejo in a direct sequel to the 1987 blockbuster Predator.

B. Amplifier Configuration

1. Four Amplifier Mode

In this mode, each paging zone has its own amplifier, and the function of the ZPI-4 is to mostly the unamplified paging or background music signal to the appropriate amplifier.

Advantages: There is no amplifier power limitation, zones can be fed to different amplifier background music is selectable per zone, and the non-paged zones will continue to get music during a page.

R3

To set the ZPI-4 up in the four amplifier mode:

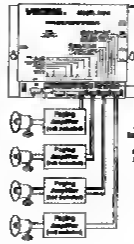
|---|---|
| Step 1. | Attach the ZONE 1 cable terminals to the back of the amplifier for Zone 1. |
| Step 2. | If background music is to be installed on this zone, connect the ZONE 1 music shorts are in place, shorting both pins. If not, connect the zones. |
| Step 3. | Repeat steps 1 and 2 for each of the remaining three zones. |
| Step 4. | Attach the supplied 5-PIN connector across the Optional Three Amp mode terminals. |
| Step 5. | If a background music source is being used, attach the Optional background music/amplifier jumpers as shown. |
| Step 6. | Set DIP switch 1 to OFF. |
| Step 7. | Connect Paging Amps, National zone inputs and speakers. |



R4

2. Two Amplifier Mode (Paging and Music)

In the two amplifier mode, one amp serves as the paging amplifier and the other as the background music amplifier. The paging or music signal is sent to the external amplifier returned and the amplified signal is switched by the ZPI-4 to the correct music or zones.

Advantages: Up to a 200 watt amplifier may be used when driving 70V speakers, only (2) amplifiers (or one stereo amp) are required for 4 zones, background music is selectable per zone, and the non-paged zones will continue to to get music during a page.

Limitations: The paging amp music is to be limited to 200 watts and the music amp music is to be limited to 70 watts when paralleling. If when speaker loads, each speaker zone is limited to. If where minimum impedance and the amp must have the ability to drive the speakers of all zones. (Example: 4 zones at 5 ohms per zone equals a 2 ohm load during an all call.)

To set up the ZPI-4 in the two amplifier mode.

|---|---|
| Step 1. | Install the ZONE 1 outlet terminals to the speakers for Zone 1. |
| Step 2. | If background music is to be installed on this zone, ensure that the ZONE 1 music shorts are in place, shorting both pins. If background music is not desired, zones the shorts. |
| Step 3. | Repeat steps 1 and 2 for each of the remaining three zones. |
| Step 4. | Attach the Paging 5-PIN and the music 5-PIN as shown in the diagram. |

Dear Mr Fax, Mr Sam

Anne Hutchinson, born Anne Marbury (1591 1643), was a Puritan woman, spiritual adviser mother of 15, and important participant in the Antinomian Controversy that shook the infant Massachusetts Bay Colony from 1636 to 1638. Her strong religious convictions were at odds with the established Puritan clergy in the Boston area, and her popularity and charisma helped create theological schism that threatened to destroy the Puritans religious experiment in New England. She was eventually tried and convicted, then banished from the colony with many of her supporters.

Born in Alford, Lincolnshire, England, Anne was the daughter of Francis Marbury, an Anglican minister and school teacher who gave her a far better education than most other girls received. She lived in London as a young adult, and married there an old friend from home, William Hutchinson, after which the couple moved back to Alford where they began following the dynamic preacher named John Cotton in the nearby town of Boston, Lincolnshire. After Cotton was compelled to emigrate in 1633, the Hutchinsons followed a year later with their 11 living children, and soon became well established in the growing settlement of Boston in New England. Anne was a midwife, and very helpful to those needing her assistance, as well as forthcoming with her personal religious understandings. She often was hosting women at her house weekly, providing commentary on recent sermons. These meetings became so popular that she began offering meetings for men as well, including the young governor of the colony, Henry Vane. As a thrill seeker, Cotton, she espoused a "covenant of grace" while accusing all of the local ministers (except for Cotton and her husband's brother in law John Wheelwright) of preaching a "covenant of works". Following complaints of many ministers about the opinions coming from Hutchinson and her allies, the situation erupted into what is commonly called the Antinomian Controversy, resulting in her 1637 trial, conviction, and banishment from the colony. It followed by a March 1638 church trial in which she was excommunicated.

With encouragement from Providence founder Roger Williams, Hutchinson and many of her supporters established the settlement of Portsmouth in what became the Colony of Rhode Island and Providence Plantations. After her husband's death a few years later, threats of Massachusetts taking over Rhode Island compelled her to move totally outside the reach of Boston, into the lands of the Dutch. She settled with her younger children near an ancient landmark called Split Rock in what later became The Bronx in New York City. Tensions with the native Siwanoy were high at the time and, in August 1643, Hutchinson and all but one of the 16 members of her household were massacred during an attack; the only survivor being her nine-year old daughter, Susanna, who was taken captive.

Best wishes,

TEST DESCRIPTION

Detects PD-L1 Expression by Immunohistochemistry (IHC)

TEST RESULT

| PD-L1 Score | Result |
|---|---|
| TPS | Positive |

COMMENT

Based on formalin-fixed paraffin-embedded tumor tissue specimen, the PD-L1 (SP142) Assay, Ventana Medical Systems, Inc. is an FDA approved companion diagnostic assay for selection of patients for treatment with anti-PD-L1 antibody therapy. Positive PD-L1 staining is defined as ≥ 5% tumor cells (TC) and/or tumor infiltrating immune cells (IC) expressing PD-L1 as detected by the VENTANA PD-L1 (SP142) Assay. Negative PD-L1 staining is defined as < 5% tumor cells (TC) and/or tumor infiltrating immune cells (IC) expressing PD-L1 as detected by the VENTANA PD-L1 (SP142) Assay.

SOURCE

Formalin-fixed paraffin-embedded tissue.

CLINICAL INFORMATION

PD-L1 is a cell surface protein that binds to PD-1 and B7.1 receptors on activated T cells, B cells, and other immune cells. PD-L1 binding to PD-1 and B7.1 receptors on T cells results in inhibition of T cell activation and cytokine release. PD-L1 is also expressed on many human cancers and is thought to play a role in tumor immune evasion. Therapeutic antibodies that block the PD-L1 interaction with PD-1 and B7.1 receptors have been developed to restore T cell activity against tumors.

Solid Tumors

PD-L1 [illegible] cell-type restricted immunohistochemistry [illegible] tumors and normal tissues and [illegible] tumor microenvironment.

Non Small Cell Lung Cancer (NSCLC):

Strong expression of PD-L1 in NSCLC tumor cells and/or tumor infiltrating immune cells is a prognostic factor associated with poor survival. Expression of PD-L1 in NSCLC is among the PD-(L)1 axis drivers that have shown promise of anti-tumor activity. The [illegible] and [illegible] PD-L1 expression [illegible] in clinical oncology trials in NSCLC.

Melanoma

PD-L1 [illegible] expression is associated with poor survival in melanoma patients. Early trials targeting the PD-1 axis with monoclonal antibodies in melanoma have shown durable, objective responses and [illegible] PD-1 axis inhibitors in melanoma is under clinical investigation.

MFD ECOPY Test List

Here is a quick list of functions to test on ECOPY enabled MFD's:

1) Create a Test Page in MS Word with the text "MFD – <Enter MFD Name here> " Use bold typeface and the largest font size that will fit on a single page. Use this page for outbound fax tests from the named MFD
2) Press the ECOPY button on the MFD touch screen. Log into ECOPY with your NT Domain user ID and password
3) Run a Scan To-Self test and send the Test Page from Step-1 to your e-mail box
4) Run a Scan-To-Mail test and send the Test Page from Step-1 to your e-mail box
5) Use the iExpense feature within ECOPY to Transmit Test Page from Step 1 to the iExpense mailbox
6) Send the Test Fax from Step 1 to faxtoy.net at 1-855-330-1239 Please view the inbound faxes of faxtoy.net to confirm that the test fax sent was successfully received. It will appear as a small thumbnail image on the faxtoy.net web page if sent successfully. If FaxToy.net does not show the correct test fax thumb nails, please send the test fax to another nearby MFD
7) Dial the fax number from a touch-tone phone. Listen for the fax signal automated beeps. If they can be heard, proceed to Step 7 below. If you get a busy signal, then the fax line may not be working correctly. Rerun this test in 10 minutes. If the first test failed.
8) Send inbound fax from fax.zone.com to the MFD being tested. Fill in all required fields on the fax.zero fax form, especially the fax number. Please coordinate this with a second party if the sending PC is not at a nearby location. Please confirm that the fax is received at the device.

Please record the results below:

OTTY LAKE – JEBBS CREEK CATCHMENT
TAY RIVER SUBWATERSHED REPORT 2011

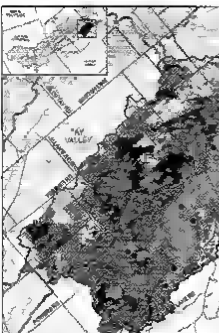
RIDEAU VALLEY CONSERVATION AUTHORITY



The RVCA produces individual reports for 18 catchments in the Tay River Subwatershed. Using data collected and analysed by the RVCA through its watershed monitoring and land cover classification programs, surface water quality trend tests are reported for Otty and McLaren Lake and Jebbs Creek along with a summary of environmental conditions for the surrounding countryside every six years.

This information is used to help better understand the effects of human activity on our water resources, allows us to better track environmental change over time and helps focus watershed management actions where they are needed the most.

The following pages of this report are a compilation of that work. For other Tay River Catchments and the Tay River Subwatershed Report, please visit the RVCA website at www.rvca.ca

Catchment Facts

- Most Otty Lake waterfront development occurred between 1950 and 1980. Waterfront development doubled between 1960 and 1980 (400 waterfront lots, 62 vacant lots) and stood at 847 dwellings in 2005 (including backlot subdivision development).
- Five subdivisions have been developed in the catchment since 1979: two (Bluegrass Lane and Maple Glen) have both waterfront and back lots with common lake access. A third, Otty Woods (McKay Farm) is being developed and will also have common lake access.
- Otty Lake community developed a Report on the State of Otty Lake and its Watershed (2007) and "The Otty Lake Management Plan" (2008) with various partners that guide the communities priorities for protecting water quality and the natural environment of the lake.
- Floodplain mapping is available for Jebbs Creek downstream of the Rideau Ferry Road to the Tay River
- Mississippi-Rideau Source Protection Assessment Report indicates that the shallowest upper bedrock aquifer is highly vulnerable to land-use privity due to thin soil cover
- Situated in part of the Algonquin Highlands, an ancient geologic region of hilly bedrock made up of such Precambrian rocks as marble, amphibolites and dark or colour banded gneiss, biotite rocks. A large area of younger sandstone flanks the catchment's northern boundary and a veneer of glacial drift (almost till, sand etc.) overlies the bedrock.
- Includes seven smaller lakes, those being Andrew, Dodds, McLaren, Mills, Muir, Rock and Thorne Mud Lakes
- 64% of the catchment falls within Tay Valley Township, 34% within the Township of Drummond-North Elmsley and 2% within the Town of Perth
- Drains 52.8 sq. km of land or 6.6% of the Tay River Subwatershed and 2% of the Rideau Valley Watershed
- Dominant land cover is woodland (43%) and wetland (15%), followed by water (14%), crop and pasture land (12%), settlement (5%) and grassland (5%)
- In 2005, more than 50% of properties on Otty Lake have been assessed with greater than 50% ornamental shoreline (using MAPLE protocol)
- Natural vegetation has been removed from about 56% or 17 km of shoreline. Docks, decks, boat houses, boat ramps and retaining walls occupy 3.5 km of the shoreline
- Contains a cool/warm water baitfish and recreational fishery with 20 fish species
- Water quality rating in Otty Lake is poor-very poor in McLaren Lake and from fair to poor along Jebbs Creek downstream towards Perth
- MOE well records indicate there are 632 private water wells or 14% of all wells in the Tay River Subwatershed
- Ducks Unl imited Canada-holds two Permits to Take Water to store surface waters for wetland habitat
- 30 stewardship (landowner tree planting/clean water) projects have been completed along with three Otty Lake Association community shoreline planting projects

AVI files that won't go away
Ever had an AVI file that you couldn't delete because every time you tried, you got an Access Denied or "file is already in use" error?

In Windows, it's not normally possible for a file to be locked by an application after that app exits, and very not possible for the app to have the file locked after the system has rebooted. In the unlikely event that this is caused by the Windows XP Shell Media Extension (shmedia.dll), which provides statistics and thumbnails for media files. Problem is, sometimes shmedia gets stuck on a file, and since it runs inside of Explorer, that file is effectively locked until you restart or logoff. And even that doesn't help, because after restarting, opening the folder causes it to lock the file again. Using Process Explorer from sysinternals.com is the easiest way to confirm that Explorer is holding the file open.

Deleting the file via the command-line, rather than navigating to the folder in Explorer, should work. If you're not a fan of the command-line and don't DEL the file that way, an alternative solution is to temporarily unregister shmedia.dll (regsvr32 /u shmedia.dll), restart, delete the file, and then re-register the extension (regsvr32 shmedia.dll). This is cleaner than hacking the registry to blow away the extension. I always just leave it unregistered, though, because I don't need it.

Note that there is a bad bug in older versions of VirtualDub's frameclient that can exacerbate this problem and cause it to happen for all AVI files, not just broken ones. It only happens if you have manually installed the AVIFile frameclient using auxsetup.exe and also enabled proxy mode via the proxyon.reg file. It doesn't happen if you just use VirtualDub itself, so most people won't run into this. Uninstalling the frameclient or turning off proxy mode are sufficient to fix the problem. This bug was fixed a while ago in version 1.6.0, so if you use proxy mode and are experiencing this problem, installing the frameclient from a newer version is sufficient.

A slightly different problem that can occur is when the AVI file can't be found, but it still seems to be taking space. One culprit of this is a damaged FAT32 filesystem. If you are using an older system and had a system failure while writing an AVI file. Usually the damage is relatively harmless, just some clusters lost in an orphaned chain. Normally Scandisk or Chkdsk will catch this on the restart, but if by chance it doesn't, running a manual check will fix up the drive. The other common cause is Norton Protected Recycle Bin, which squirrels the deleted AVI file into a different Recycle Bin that most people miss, and has a habit of accumulating an ungodly amount of files. Just flush Norton (or its Protected Recycle Bin) and you'll get your space back.

apply what we've learned to new products like Gmail and Google Maps. Our hope is to bring the power of search to previously unexplored areas and to help people access and use even more of the ever expanding information in their lives.

3 Fast is better than slow.

We know your time is valuable so when you're seeking an answer on the web you want it right away—and we aim to please. We may be the only people in the world who can say our goal is to have people leave our website as quickly as possible. By shaving excess bits and bytes from our pages and increasing the efficiency of our serving environment, we've broken our own speed records many times over, so that the average response time on a search result is a fraction of a second. We keep speed in mind with each new product we release whether it's a mobile application or Google Chrome, a browser designed to be fast enough for the modern web. And we continue to work on making it all go even faster.

4 Democracy on the web works.

Google search works because it relies on the millions of individuals posting links on websites to help determine which other sites offer content of value. We assess the importance of every web page using more than 200 signals and a variety of techniques including our patented PageRank™ algorithm, which analyzes which sites have been "voted" to be the best sources of information by other pages across the web. As the web gets bigger, this approach actually improves, as each new site is another point of information and another vote to be counted. In the same vein, we are active in open source software development, where innovation takes place through the collective effort of many programmers.

5 You don't need to be at your desk to need an answer.

The world is increasingly mobile: people want access to information wherever they are whenever they need it. We're pioneering new technologies and offering new solutions for mobile services that help people all over the globe to do any number of tasks on their phone—from checking email and calendar events to watching videos—not to mention the several different ways to access Google search on a phone. In addition, we're hoping to fuel greater innovation for mobile users everywhere with Android, a free, open source mobile platform. Android brings the openness that shaped the Internet to the mobile world. Not only does Android benefit consumers, who have more choice and innovative new mobile experiences, but it opens up revenue opportunities for carriers, manufacturers and developers.

ULTRASONOGRAPHY OF UPPER ABDOMEN, PANCREAS, AND GALLBLADDER

Department of Diagnostic Radiology

Lahey Clinic

Ultrasonography of the upper abdomen, gallbladder and pancreas is a noninvasive painless procedure that uses sound waves, not radiation, to examine the body

The preparation for these ultrasonographic studies is determined by what time of day your appointment is scheduled:

For morning appointments

You should fast after midnight, the night before your examination. Water may be taken at any time

For appointments scheduled from noon on

You may eat a fat free breakfast (NO BUTTER OR MARGARINE, EGGS, MILK OR CHEESE) and then fast until your examination is completed. Again, water may be taken at any time.

On the day of your appointment, you should take your routine medications with water. (Patients who take Maalox routinely should avoid taking Maalox 6 hours before their ultrasonographic test.) Patients who are insulin-dependent diabetics may have fruit juice or fruit as needed on the day of their ultrasonographic appointment

When you arrive in the Department of Diagnostic Radiology, you will be asked to remove all or part of your clothing and change into a hospital gown.

For the ultrasonographic scan you will be lying on your back on a table. The technologist or sonographer will then apply a warm water-soluble gel on the area of your abdomen that needs to be scanned. A special microphone-type probe called a transducer is run over the skin surface. This probe is the part of the ultrasonographic equipment that produces the sound waves necessary to create an image of your internal body structures. These images appear on a television screen, and the sonographer makes a photograph of the images.

An ultrasonographic scan takes approximately 15 to 30 minutes to complete. The images are then examined by a radiologist who will send a report to your physician.

If you encounter any problem in following these instructions or if a situation arises that does not appear to be covered here, please call your physician at the Lahey Clinic (781) 744-5100

Method

1. Put the flour, sugar, butter, salt in the large bowl of the stand mixer fitted with paddle attachment and beat on medium speed until the mixture resembles coarse breadcrumbs.
2. Pour the yeast and milk mixture into the flour mixture and beat until the mixture comes together to form a soft dough. Add the egg and beat until the egg is fully incorporated into the dough.
3. Continue to beat the dough for 5 minutes on medium speed until it is smooth and elastic. Remove the dough from the mixer bowl and place in a lightly oiled bowl. Cover with a damp cloth and leave to rise in a warm place for 1 hour or until the dough has doubled in size.
4. Punch down the dough to release the air and then turn it out onto a lightly floured surface. Divide the dough into 12 equal pieces and shape each piece into a ball. Place the balls of dough on a baking sheet lined with parchment paper, cover with a damp cloth and leave to rise for 30 minutes.
5. Preheat the oven to 200°C (180°C fan) gas mark 6. Bake the buns for 15-20 minutes or until golden brown and cooked through. Remove from the oven and brush with melted butter. Serve warm or cool on a wire rack.

Notes

- You can also add dried fruit, such as raisins or sultanas, to the dough for a delicious variation.
- These buns are best eaten on the day they are made, but they can be stored in an airtight container for up to 2 days.
- To freeze the buns, allow them to cool completely and then place in a freezer bag or container. They can be frozen for up to 3 months. To defrost, thaw overnight in the refrigerator or at room temperature for a few hours.
- If you prefer a softer crust, you can brush the buns with milk before baking.
- For a sweeter bun, you can add a tablespoon of honey or maple syrup to the dough.
- These buns are also delicious toasted and served with butter and jam.

THAT'S A NICE 3RD DOWN YOU FORCED THERE
IT WOULD BE A SHAME
CONVERTED IT

Well pay you £20 for each 12-hour period you're delayed, up to a maximum of £240.

Why may your claim be declined?

The foundation of this UK luxury says: "Most travel insurance policies will give you some cover if your flight's delayed, but this can be quite limited. Usually delay cover will only kick in if the delay was caused by adverse weather, strikes or mechanical breakdown."

This cover will also typically only kick in after a certain amount of time, so if the delay's over eight hours, for example, this claim won't be the one for every policy so you should check the terms of your travel insurance to see what's included.

2. The cut-off is 2005...but it's harder for flights before 2007

You can apply for compensation for any past delays, stretching back as far as February 2005.

Yet in England, Wales and Northern Ireland, due to the statute of limitations, it's you need to take the airline to court to get the cash back any common, can't be unduly arduous. Two years may only go back for years in Scotland, and, for other claims can be tricky.

Quick questions

Q: My airline says: can only claim back to any years?

This is wrong. You can claim back to February 2005, when the rules came into force. Although it may be difficult to publish. Claims that date back over six years in the UK, as they're official ombudsman system to pull delays from time.

Your only option to get old cash to pay up. If they say no originally, via court, but most UK courts will only deal cases go up back six years (five in Scotland), creating like a worry.

Therefore, some airlines are declining claims go up back further than six years, as they know this rule cannot be publicised.

For instance, both Monarch Airlines and Thomas Cook have confirmed they will only consider claims that date back a max them of six years.

Q: What be for 2005-2006 years?

Complain to your airline in the first instance. If your case is rejected, complain to the relevant regulator as to the European Consumer Centre where relevant. See the How do I claim? (Planning) section, for more information.

Unfortunately, if your case is rejected by both the airline and the regulator/ECC, then there's nothing more you can do, as courts in England, Wales and Northern Ireland will deny hear cases going back six years (five in Scotland).

Q: How far back can I go for non-UK claims?

While you can claim back to February 2005, when EU exist came into force, it may be difficult to perform outside the UK, as there's no official arbitration system for airlines.

For example, Dutch airline KLM says it will only look into complaints about flights dating back two years.

Q: When did these rules come into force?

On 23 October 2012, the Court of Justice of the European Union upheld a judgement which said consumers who arrived a three consecutive hours or more have the right to claim compensation. This upheld a long-standing rule when airlines had challenged.

Q: Has it been tested in court?

To help. In January 2013, a judge ruled in Sinclair Treat Canada Court that a couple were entitled to £400 in compensation, and expenses after their Thomas Cook flight from Tenerife to Gatwick was delayed in 2010. The airline had originally disputed the claim, stating "a delay was not in fault.

3. It must be the airline's fault to claim

You are only entitled to the compensation if the delay was something within the airline's control. Staffing problems and refurbishments, for instance. Yet, political issues like security or bad weather make claiming a no-go.

To make your case stronger, check out caselaw by European regulators in July 2013 outline scenarios where they believe passengers can claim compensation. Importantly, these include some technical faults which were previously rejected by airlines. See the full list on the European Commission's website. Many of the scenarios are "other circumstances the airline can demonstrate, even if it is not in control", so you can claim for that.

Quick questions

Q: What scenarios are NOT the airline's fault, meaning no compensation?

Where the delay is out of the airline's hands, then extraordinary circumstances include:

- Bad weather
- Northern strikes
- Political problems
  Security-related issues
  - potential problem caused by the plane manufacturer (eg. Airbus, Boeing)
- Air traffic management decisions, eg. airspace shut due to volcanic ash

How to Restore the Grandstream HT-286 to Factory Defaults

From PhonePower Knowledge Base

First, find the MAC Address of the device. It is a 12 digit HEX number located on the outside of the unit.

Next you will need to encode the MAC address into something you can dial, as you can not enter letters with the phone. To encode the MAC address, please use the following mapping:

- 0-9: 0-9
- A: 22
- B: 222
- C: 2223
- D: 33
- E: 333
- F: 3333

For example, if the MAC address is 00:0B:82:0E:E3:95, after using the table above to encode it, the encoded MAC address should read 000822820333395.

Once you have encoded the MAC address you will begin the factory reset. To perform factory reset:

- Pick up the handset and dial  or press the LED button for voice prompt.
- Enter 99 and get the voice prompt beep.
- Enter the encoded MAC address.
- Wait for 15 seconds. The device will reboot automatically and restore to factory default setting.

Note: Factory Reset will be disabled if the Lock keypad update is set to Yes.

Christianity's correlation

Now consider the synonyms for Christianity. Jesus refers to Christians as his bride, church, and body. She eventually becomes his wife. There is consistent reference to the female gender when Jesus identifies his church.

2 Corinthians 11:2 2 For I am jealous over you with godly jealousy: for I have espoused you to one husband, that I may present you as a chaste virgin to Christ.

John 3:29 29 He that hath the bride is the bridegroom: but the friend of the bridegroom, which standeth and heareth him, rejoiceth greatly because of the bridegroom's voice: this my joy therefore is fulfilled.

Revelation 21:9 9 And there came unto me one of the seven angels which had the seven vials full of the seven last plagues, and talked with me, saying, Come hither, I will shew thee the bride, the Lamb's wife.

Revelation 22:17 17 And the Spirit and the bride say, Come. And let him that heareth say, Come. And let him that is athirst come. And whosoever will, let him take the water of life freely.

Christianity declares Jesus Christ is God in the flesh. Christianity's message is for all humanity to repent and accept Jesus Christ as Saviour. This great truth aggregates all other religions away from Christianity. The degree, to which a country accepts or condemns Christianity, produces a corresponding protection from satanic influence. Therefore where Jesus Christ is rejected, society suffers. And women suffer the most.

Conan O'Brien's Speech to the Harvard Class of 2000

I'd like to begin by thanking the class marshals for inviting me here today. The last time I was invited to Harvard it cost me $110,000. So I was reluctant to show up. I'm going to start before I really begin by announcing my one goal this afternoon. I want to be half as funny as tomorrow's Commencement speaker, moral philosopher and economist Amartya Sen. That's the job. Must get more laughs than seminal wage-price theoretician. By the way, enjoy that. Bring a calculator. It's going to be a nerd fest.

Students of the Harvard class of 2000, 15 years ago I sat where you sit now. And I thought exactly what you are now thinking. What's going to happen to me? Will I find my place in the world? Am I really graduating a virgin? Still have 24 hours. Roommate's mom very hot. Swear she's checking me out. There was that Rob Lowe movie.

Being here today, on a sincere note, is very special for me. I do miss this place. I especially miss Harvard Square. Let me tell you, (you don't know this) Harvard Square is unique. Nowhere else in the world will you find a man wearing a turban and a Red Sox jacket working in a lesbian bookstore. I'm just glad my dad's working.

It's particularly sweet for me to be here today because—this is true—when I graduated I wanted very badly to be a Class Day speaker. Unfortunately, my speech was rejected. So if you'll indulge me, I'd like to read a portion of that speech. This is the actual speech from 15 years ago. "Fellow students, as we sit here today listening to that classic A-ha tune which will definitely stand the test of time, I would like to make several predictions about what the future will hold. I believe that one day a simple governor from a small southern state will rise to the highest office in the land. He will lack political skill, but will lead on the sheer strength of his moral authority. I believe that justice will prevail and one day the Berlin Wall will crumble, uniting East and West Berlin forever under Communist rule. I believe that one day a high-speed network of interconnected computers will spring up worldwide, so enriching people that they will lose their interest in idle chitchat and pornography. And finally, I believe that one day I will have a television show on a major network seen by millions of people at night which I will use to reenact crimes and help catch at large criminals." Then I had a section on the death of Wall Street, but you don't need to hear about that.

The point is that although you see me as a celebrity, a member of the cultural elite, a demigod if you will, and potential husband material, I came here in the fall of 1981 and lived at Hollworthy Hall as a student much like you. I was, without exaggeration—this is true—the ugliest picture in the freshman facebook. When Harvard asked me for a picture the previous summer, I thought it was for their records, so I jogged in the August heat to a passport photo office and sat for a mugshot. To make matters worse, when the facebook came out, they put my picture right next to Catherine Oxenberg, a stunning blonde actress who was expected to join the class of '85, but decided to defer admission so she could join the cast of Dynasty. Folks, my photo would have looked bad on any page, but next to Catherine Oxenberg, I looked like a mackerel that had been in a car accident.

You see, in those days, I was 6 feet 4 inches tall and I weighed 150 pounds. True. Recently, I had some structural engineers run those numbers into a computer model and according to the computer I collapsed in 1987, killing hundreds in Taiwan.

After freshman year, I moved to Mather House. Mather House, incidentally, was designed by the same firm that built Hitler's bunker. In fact, if Hitler had conducted the war from Mather House, he would have shot himself a year earlier. Saved us a lot of trouble.

Read in Bright Sunlight with No Glare

Kindle Paperwhite has a matte screen that reflects light like ordinary paper so you can read as easily in bright sunlight as in your living room with no glare.

Read at Night

With Kindle Paperwhite, reading in bed just got better. The patented built-in light illuminates the screen, not the entire room, so you won't disturb your partner when you turn out your book down at night.

Patented Built-in Light

Designed for Reading

Unlike a backlit tablet display, Kindle Paperwhite guides light towards the surface o ink display from above so that the light never shines directly towards your eyes, t you to read comfortably without eye strain. The built-in light illuminates the scree evenly than a book light, or lighted cover

Perfectly Balanced Whiteness

We worked on Kindle Paperwhite for over two years to perfect the uniformity of li in light, flattening out a fiber optic cable into a sheet, and meticulously to ensu perfectly even distribution of light. Our design uses nanoscale optical diffractive p to enable light control over the direction of the light. Enjoy reading with exceptio lighting uniformity and evenly balanced whiteness across the entire display. Take lo screen looks at different lighting conditions.

Adjustable Brightness

You, eyes adapt to the amount of light around you, so you'll prefer thinner light reading in a dark setting and brighter light when reading in well-lit surroundings adjust the brightness of Kindle Paperwhite across a wide spectrum, from low ligh brightness, so you can read comfortably in any setting.

Power Efficient

Because our patented technology enables fine-grain control over where the light i diffused, Kindle Paperwhite uses low-power LEDs, requiring very little power to ev illuminate the entire screen.

Monthly Record of Work Search

State law requires that you engage in an active work search for each week you are claiming unemployment benefits. You must contact a minimum of two employers per week, and report the details and results of each work search effort online or on this form. Complete and submit this form on a monthly basis via mail, fax, online or an in-person visit to MWA. State law further provides that your work search effort is subject to random audit. To maintain benefit eligibility you are urged to maintain records reflecting your attempts to secure employment, e.g. copies of resumes, emails, and other online confirmation.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION ABOUT THE LIFELINE PROGRAM Assurance Wireless is a Lifeline supported service. Life, as is federal benefit, and only eligible subscribers may enroll. Customers who will try to make false statements in order to obtain the benefit can be punished by fine or imprisonment or can be disqualified or be ban from the program. One Lifeline supported service (landline or wireless) is available per household. A household is one or more individuals who live together at the same address and share income and expenses. A household is not permitted to receive Lifeline benefits from multiple providers. Violation of the one-per-household rule constitutes a violation of federal rules and will result in disqualification from the Lifeline program and potential prosecution by the United States government. Lifeline is a non-transferable benefit. Service cannot be transferred to any individual, including another eligible person in your household.

4 SIGNATURE

By signing below I certify under penalty of perjury that the information contained within this Application is true and correct to the best of my knowledge.

- I participate in a qualifying federal Program or meet the income qualifications to establish eligibility for Lifeline, if proof of eligibility is required, I have provided the required documentation as listed in Section 2.
- If I have provided a temporary address, I must notify Assurance Wireless within 30 days of any change of address. Assurance Wireless will attempt to verify every 90 days that I continue to reside at that address. If I do not respond to these address verification attempts within 30 days I will be de-enrolled.
- I will inform Assurance Wireless within 30 days of the following, and may be subject to penalties if I fail to do so:
  - I move to a new address,
  - no longer participate in a Lifeline qualifying Program or my annual household income exceeds 135% of the Federal Poverty Guidelines
  - I become aware that my household is receiving more than one Lifeline benefit.
  - For any other reason I no longer meet the criteria for Federal Lifeline support.
- I authorize Assurance Wireless or its agent to access any records (including financial records) required to verify my statements herein and to confirm my eligibility for Assurance Wireless service. I further authorize any state or federal agency representatives to disclose with, and/or provide information to, Assurance Wireless verifying my participation in public assistance programs that qualify me for Assurance Wireless service.
- I authorize Assurance Wireless to provide access to or release any records required for the administration of Assurance Wireless service.
- I understand that the completion of this application does not constitute immediate approval for Assurance Wireless service.
- I acknowledge that providing false or fraudulent information to receive Lifeline benefits is punishable by law

You MUST place a check mark ☑ next to all 3 statements, then sign and date below.

☐ 1. I certify that my household will receive only one Lifeline Assistance benefit (wireless or wireline). To the best of my knowledge, my household (i) is not currently receiving such a benefit or (ii) if currently receives a Lifeline discount from a different phone service provider I consent to the transfer of my Lifeline benefit to Assurance Wireless and understand that once the transfer is complete, I will lose my Lifeline program benefit with my current phone service provider AND

☐ 2. I understand that I may be required to re-certify continued eligibility for Life, as a any time. Failure to do so will result in the term nation of my Lifeline benefits AND

☐ 3. I consent to have my personal identification information shared with the Universal Service Administrative Company (USAC) (the Lifeline Program administrator) and/or its agents for the purpose of confirming that neither I nor my household receives more than one Lifeline benefit.

YOUR APPLICATION CANNOT BE APPROVED WITHOUT 3 CHECK MARKS AND YOUR SIGNATURE

STOP

- ☐ Have you provided your Date of Birth and your last 4 digits of SSN?
- ☐ Have you attached proof of eligibility? (if necessary)
- ☐ Have you checked all 3 statements above and signed the Application?

Your Application cannot be processed without these items.

Broadway Blend

This is a special blend which includes medium and dark roast Arabica coffees from Colombia, Guatemala and Costa Rica. The base coffees are peak roasted medium dark (the oils just break the surface of the bean at the end of the roaster). We then add a fine dark roast Colombian. Characterized by its rich flavor and aroma. Fine body and medium acidity this blend is a real crowd pleaser and makes for an excellent all day house blend with more than a ounces of the finest coffees of the European tradition.

Cape Horn Blend

One has to circumnavigate the globe to acquire all the superb components of this outstanding blend. Kenya AA and Ethiopian Yirgacheffe from Africa, Papua New Guinea from the Pacific Rim and the finest Colombians from South America. The Papua New Guinea's superb rich smooth flavor and touch of nuttiness became the jumping off point for a complex blend. The Colombians provide broad flavor and exceptional balance. Kenya AA add their distinctive flavor hallmark winiousness and bright acidity. These coffees are roasted medium dark. But the Ethiopian Yirgacheffe roasted rich and dark, is the focal point of the blend. Good Ethiopians provide some of the most rewarding coffee drinking experiences to those fortunate enough to procure them. These Yirgacheffes are special their intense flavor and character though mellowed heavily shine through their deep dark roast. Highly aromatic and complex the unique flavor profile of this blend is truly exceptional.

Danube Kaffee

For over three hundred years the tradition of the European coffeehouse has evolved... reaching its highest form in the city of Vienna Austria. Notwithstanding Italy's renowned status as the masters of the espresso tradition Vienna is the clear coffee capital of Europe. To capture the spirit and essence of the very best of the Viennese tradition - luxurious and luxurious coffees to match the sumptuous fresh baked desserts and pastries they always accompany. Kobricks has developed its newest offering Danube Kaffee. Crafted from the finest coffees with extraordinary attention to detail the result is an intensely aromatic richly flavorful cup with exceptional body and depth. Danube Kaffee blend includes a rich array of coffees including Estate Costa Rican Sumatra and Kenya AA brought to the perfect shade of Vienna roast. To bring further complexity and smoothness to the blend we then blend just the right quantity of Dark roasted Sumatra adding the final layer of richness.

Dark Velvet Blend

This blend includes three outstanding origins. Kenya AA, Colombian Supreme and Java Estate Select Colombian Supreme is the anchor for the blend. Medium to full bodied with rich flavor and medium acidity an

Department of Consumer Affairs

Debt Collection: Money Judgments and Frozen Bank Accounts

Information for Consumers

Debt collection was the #1 complaint category for the Department of Consumer Affairs (DCA) in 2008 with consistent volume increasing nearly 70% compared to 2007. Although DCA can mediate many of the complaints we receive, we cannot mediate issues that involve money judgments and frozen bank accounts. To help you protect yourself—and your money—DCA created this fact sheet which includes where to turn when you need assistance.

Money Judgments

What is a money judgment?

If a person or company (known as the "creditor") sues you, claiming that you owe a certain amount of money, and the judge decides in the creditor's favor, the judge awards a "money judgment." The creditor has a right to try to collect that money from you or "satisfy" the judgment. If a creditor has a money judgment against you, that creditor may try to take money directly from your bank account to pay off the debt.

If I have a money judgment against me, what happens to the money in my bank account?

One way a creditor can try to collect on a money judgment is to serve legal papers on the bank or credit union requiring it to restrain or "freeze" a consumer's bank account. This allows a creditor to take money directly from the account.

Can a creditor take all of my money to satisfy a money judgment?

In New York State, as of January 1, 2009, even if a creditor has a judgment against you, the creditor cannot take, restrain, or freeze all of the money in your account—no matter how much you owe.

Exempt Funds

Under State and Federal law, certain money may never be taken by creditors to satisfy money judgments. (See *At*s there exceptions to the Exempt Income Protection Act?) This money is considered "exempt funds." You may choose to use exempt funds to pay a debt you owe, but a creditor cannot freeze or forcibly take these funds from you or your bank account to pay off a debt.

Exempt funds include the following:

- ✓ Supplemental Security Income (SSI)
- ✓ Social Security retirement
- ✓ Social Security Disability (SSD)
- ✓ Public assistance (Temporary Assistance for Needy Families, TANF)
- ✓ Income earned while receiving SSI or public assistance
- ✓ Disability benefits
- ✓ Workers' compensation benefits
- ✓ Veterans' benefits
- ✓ Black lung benefits
- ✓ Spousal support, maintenance (alimony) or child support
- ✓ Railroad retirement
- ✓ Unemployment benefits

- ✓ Wages. Ninety percent (90%) of your wages earned during the past 60 days are exempt if you need them for basic needs, such as shelter (rent or mortgage), food, and medicine. This means that if you earn $500 per week, up to $5,600 would be exempt from an account freeze. If you need that money for critical expenses like rent or mortgage, food, or medicine.
- ✓ Most public or private pensions. Public or private pensions are usually exempt from collection.

Exempt Income Protection Act of 2008

Under a new law effective January 1, 2009—the Exempt Income Protection Act of 2008—some money held in bank accounts is protected to ensure that consumers have sufficient funds available to meet their basic needs, such as rent, food, and medicine.

METHYLPREDNISOLONE ORAL
OTHER NAMES: METHYLPREDNISOLONE ORAL, METHYLPREDNISOLONE

USES: Methylprednisolone is used to treat conditions such as arthritis, blood disorders, severe allergic reactions, certain cancers, eye conditions, skin/kidney/breathing diseases, and immune system disorders. It decreases your immune system's response to various diseases to reduce symptoms such as swelling, pain, and allergic/eye reactions. This medication is a corticosteroid hormone. Methylprednisolone may also be used with other medications in hormone disorders.

HOW TO USE: Take this medication by mouth as directed by your doctor, usually with food or milk. Follow your dosing instructions carefully. The dosage and length of treatment are based on your medical condition and response to treatment. Different dosing schedules, such as this every other day, may also be used. Take this medication with a reminder. Consult your doctor or pharmacist if you have any questions. Do not take more or less than your prescribed dose or longer than prescribed. Your condition will not improve any faster, and your risk or side effects will increase. Do not stop taking this medication without consulting your doctor. Your condition may worse or you may have withdrawal symptoms (such as weakness, weight loss, nausea, muscle pain, headache, dizziness, depression) when this drug is suddenly stopped. To prevent these withdrawal symptoms when stopping this medication, your doctor may reduce your dose gradually. Consult your doctor or pharmacist for more details and report any withdrawal symptoms immediately. See also Precautions section. Tell your doctor if your hormone does not improve or if it worsens.

SIDE EFFECTS: Nausea, vomiting, heartburn, headache, dizziness, trouble sleeping, appetite changes, increased sweating, or acne may occur. If any of these effects persist or worsen, tell your doctor or pharmacist promptly. Remember that your doctor has prescribed this medication because he or she has judged that the benefit to you is greater than the risk of side effects. Many people using this medication do not have serious side effects. This medication may make your blood sugar levels rise, which can lead to or worsen diabetes. Tell your doctor immediately if you develop symptoms of high blood sugar such as increased thirst or hunger, frequent urination, fruity breath odor, or increased blood sugar readings. Your doctor may need to adjust your diabetes medication. Avoid sugary, salty, and fatty foods. Ask your doctor or pharmacist for more information. This medication may weaken your body's ability to fight infections. Check with your doctor as soon as possible if you already have infections or if you have been exposed to chickenpox or measles. Tell your doctor if your infection does not improve or if it worsens.

PRECAUTIONS: Before taking methylprednisolone, tell your doctor or pharmacist if you are allergic to it or to prednisone or if you have any other allergies. This product may contain inactive ingredients, which can cause allergic reactions or other problems. Talk to your pharmacist for more details. Before using this medication, tell your doctor or pharmacist your medical history, especially of: bleeding problems, blood clots, brittle bones (osteoporosis), diabetes, eye diseases (such as glaucoma, cataracts), parasite infections (such as worms), heart problems (such as recent heart attack, congestive heart failure), high blood pressure, current/past infections (such as those caused by tuberculosis, threadworms, herpes, fungus), kidney disease, liver disease, mental/mood conditions (such as psychosis, depression, anxiety), stomach/intestinal problems (such as diverticulitis, ulcer, stomach/bowel tear), seizures. Methylprednisolone may make you drowsy. Do not drive, use machinery, or do any activity that requires alertness until you are sure how you perform such activities safely. This medication may cause stomach bleeding. Drinking use of alcohol while using this medication may increase your risk for stomach bleeding. Limit alcoholic beverages to decrease risk of dizziness and stomach bleeding. Consult your doctor or pharmacist for more information. Methylprednisolone can make you more likely to get infections or may worsen any current infections. Therefore, wash your hands well to prevent this spread of infection, avoid contact with people who have infections and may spread it to others (such as chickenpox, measles, flu). Consult your doctor if you have been exposed to an infection or for more details. This medication may cause vaccines to not work as well. Live vaccines may cause serious problems (such as infection) in those who are using this medication. Do not have live/inactivated/inactivated/attenuated vaccines without the consent of your doctor. Avoid contact with people who have recently received live vaccines (such as the varicella virus) or rash (by nose). Before having surgery, tell your doctor or dentist about all the products you use (including prescription drugs, nonprescription drugs, and herbal products). Using certain blood medications for a long time can make it more difficult for your body to respond to physical stress. Therefore, before having surgery or emergency treatment, or if you get a serious illness/injury, tell your doctor or dentist that you are using this medication or have used this medication within the past 12 months. Tell your doctor right away if you develop unusual/extreme tiredness or weight loss. If you will be using this medication for a long time, carry a warning card or necklace/bracelet that identifies your use of this medication. See also Intestinal Perforation. Older adults may be more sensitive to the side effects of this drug, especially brittle bones (osteoporosis). Talk to your doctor about the ways to prevent osteoporosis. See also Intestinal Perforation. This medication may slow down a child's growth if used for a long time. Consult the doctor or pharmacist for more details. See the doctor regularly so your child's height and growth can be checked. During pregnancy, this medication should be used only when clearly needed. It may rarely harm an unborn baby. Discuss the risks and benefits with your doctor before taking this medicine while you have been using this medication for a long time may have hormone problems. Tell your doctor immediately if you notice symptoms such as paralysis, nausea/vomiting, severe diarrhea, or weakness in your newborn. This medication passes into breast milk, but is unlikely to harm a nursing infant. Consult your doctor before breast-feeding.

DRUG INTERACTIONS: Drug interactions may change how your medications work or the risk your risk for serious side effects. This document does not contain all possible drug interactions. Keep a list of all the products you use (including prescription/nonprescription drugs and herbal products) and share it with your doctor and pharmacist. Do not start, stop, or change the dosage of any medicines without your doctor's approval. Some products that may interact with this drug include: aldesleukin, amphotericin. Also drugs that can cause severe blood problems (including antiplatelet drugs such as clopidogrel, "blood thinners" such as warfarin/dabigatran, NSAIDs such as ibuprofen, celecoxib, aspirin, salicylates). If your doctor has directed you to take low-dose aspirin for heart attack or stroke prevention (usually at dosages of 81-325 milligrams a day), you should continue

Flammable Spray Warning

If your machine experiences any of the problems listed below, please follow the step by step instructions to correctly clean your machine:

- The print quality is affected by black vertical stripes.
- The LCD on your machine displays "Drum Error" or "Part. on Drum".
- The Paper LED on your printer is blinking.
  If the above error still shown after you remove the jammed paper in the printer, it means "Drum Error" or "Part. on Drum".
- The Drum LED on your printer is on.

Cleaning Instruction

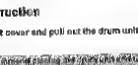
1 Open the front cover and pull out the drum unit and toner cartridge assembly

2 Clean the primary corona wire inside the drum unit by gently sliding the blue tab from right to left several times.



3 Return the blue tab and keep it into the home position (▲).

4 Put the drum unit and toner cartridge assembly into the machine.

5 Close the front cover

Prayer to St. Joseph over 1900 years old

O St. Joseph whose protection is so great, so strong, so prompt before the Throne of God, I place in you all my interests and desires. O St. Joseph do assist me by your powerful intercession and obtain for me from your Divine Son all spiritual blessings through Jesus Christ, Our Lord; so that having engaged here below your Heavenly power I may offer my Thanksgiving and Homage to the most Loving of Fathers. O St. Joseph, I never weary contemplating you and Jesus asleep in your arms. I dare not approach while He reposes near your heart. Press him in my name and kiss His fine Head for me, and ask Him to return the Kiss when I draw my dying breath. St. Joseph, Patron of departing souls, pray for us. Amen

Say for nine consecutive mornings for anything you may desire. It has seldom been known to fail.

This prayer was found in the fiftieth year of Our Lord Jesus Christ. In 1500's it was sent by the Pope to Emperor Charles when he was going into battle.

Whoever reads this prayer or hears it or carries it, will never die a sudden death, nor be drowned, nor will poison take effect on them. They will not fall into the hands of the enemy nor be burned in any fire, nor will they be defeated in battle.

Make this prayer known everywhere.

CancerTYPE ID — Molecular Classification with CancerTYPE ID

FFPE Tissue Processing & Tumor Enrichment

- CancerTYPE ID requires as few as 300-500 viable tumor cells and is compatible with limited biopsy specimens such as FNAs, cytological specimens, and small core needle biopsies.
- CancerTYPE ID routinely employs laser guided microdissection to enrich for tumor specimen.

Gene Expression Profiling

- CancerTYPE ID uses a robust real-time RT-PCR platform to detect very small differences in gene expression.
- CancerTYPE ID measures and integrates the gene expression of 92 genes, 5 normalization genes and 87 lineage determinant and tissue-specific genes, most of which are not routinely measured by IHC.

Reference Tumor Database & Algorithm

- CancerTYPE ID uses a computational algorithm to predict the patient's tumor type based on the degree of similarity of the sample's 92-gene expression profile to a reference database of gene expression profiles. The reference database contains gene expression information from over 2,000 tumor specimens of known histogenesis, and representing ~95% of all solid tumors based on incidence.
- The CancerTYPE ID algorithm provides a predicted main type and any sub-types in rank-order by relative probabilities, which are based on the tumor's gene expression similarity to tumors of these types in the reference database.

Molecular Classification

- CancerTYPE ID classifies 28 tumor types and 50 tumor subtypes.
- In an independent validation of 2998 blinded samples, the molecular diagnosis was 87% accurate for main tumor type and 86% accurate for tumor subtype.

SAMPLE TEST REPORT

Interpreting CancerTYPE ID Test Results

MOLECULAR DIAGNOSIS

The [redacted] molecular diagnosis is the CancerTYPE ID prediction of certain tumor subtypes. It is reported probability (≥ 80%), the tumor is reported as "Indeterminate", in this case, the test report will also indicate tumor types that can be ruled out (see below) that cannot be excluded.

CAN NOT BE EXCLUDED

When applicable, tumor types on the CancerTYPE ID reference database that share some gene expression profile similarity to the patient's sample such that they cannot be excluded. Item diagnostic consideration will be listed here in rank order.

RULE OUTS

The CancerTYPE ID test report also lists tumor types that can all be ruled out with 95% confidence. In an independent validation of 2998 blinded samples, the rule-outs were 95% accurate. This may provide useful differential diagnostic information when two or more potential tumor types are suspected and one or more tumors may be ruled out in the rule outs.

U.S. CENSUS BUREAU

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS REGARDING THE 2007 SURVEY OF BUSINESS OWNERS AND SELF-EMPLOYED PERSONS

Is my response to this survey required by law?

Yes. Your response to the 2007 Survey of Business Owners and Self-Employed Persons (SBO) questionnaire is required by law. Title 13 of the United States Code requires businesses and other organizations that receive this questionnaire to answer the questions and return the report to the U.S. Census Bureau.

Are my survey responses kept confidential?

Yes. By law (Title 13, United States Code, Sections 9 and 214) your responses are completely confidential and may be seen only by persons sworn to uphold the confidentiality of Census Bureau information. The data are used only for statistical purposes and the responses are summarized so that the confidentiality of individual respondents and their business addresses is fully protected. The law also provides that copies retained in your files are immune from legal process.

Can I complete this survey online?

Yes. To complete this survey online, go to <www.census.gov/econ/help/sbo> and click on "Electronic Reporting." This link will show you how to locate your unique User Name and Password provided on the enclosed 2007 SBO questionnaire. After reading your User Name and Password click on "Census Taker."

This interactive application is designed to provide the Census Bureau with a highly secure user-friendly means of collecting survey and census information via the Internet. Directions regarding the use of Census Taker are available once you enter the site. The primary requirement for using Census Taker software is a Web browser capable of at least 128-bit encryption. This software does not use JavaScript. Java, or cookies. Most browsers released since 1998 are sufficient. Once you have filed your survey form online it is no longer necessary to send in the paper copy of your report form.

How long will it take to complete the SBO questionnaire?

Public reporting burden for this survey is estimated to average 10 to 12 minutes per response, including the time for reviewing instructions, searching existing data sources, gathering and maintaining the data needed, and completing and reviewing the collection of information. Send comments regarding this burden estimate or any other aspect of this collection of information, including suggestions for reducing this burden to Paperwork Project 0607-0943, U.S. Census Bureau, 4600 Silver Hill Road, AMSD-3K138, Washington, DC 20233. You may e-mail comments to <Paperwork@census.gov>; use "Paperwork Project 0607-0943" as the subject. Please DO NOT RETURN your questionnaire to this address. Use the enclosed preaddressed envelope to return your questionnaire. Response to this survey is not required unless the questionnaire displays a valid approval number from the Office of Management and Budget (OMB). The OMB 4-digit-8-digit number appears in the upper right corner of the report form.

What if I don't have the information?

If your 2007 SBO form requests information that is not in your available business records, you may use estimates. The Census Bureau has found that estimates from business officials are more accurate than industry averages or other estimates and increase the reliability of statistics when combined with information from other similar businesses. If you want to clarify the survey request, discuss use of your available business records, or obtain help in preparing an estimate, please call 1-888-824-9964, Monday to Friday, 8 a.m. to 8 p.m., Eastern time.

Why does the government take this survey?

The SBO is part of the Economic Census program, which the Census Bureau is required by law to conduct every 5 years (Title 13 of the United States Code). The Census Bureau combines data from the SBO with data from other economic surveys, economic censuses, and administrative records and presents them in American FactFinder, the Census Bureau's online, self-service, free access tool. The published data include number of firms (both firms with paid employees and firms with no paid employees), sales and receipts, number of paid employees, and annual payroll; they are presented by kind of business, geographic area, and size of firm (employment and receipts). These results will also contain summary statistics on the composition of businesses in the U.S. by gender, Hispanic or Latino origin, and race, including data for firms that are veteran-owned. Additional demographic and economic characteristics of business owners and their businesses will be included, such as, owner's age, education level, veteran status, and primary function in the business; family- and home-based businesses; types of customers and workers; sources of financing for start up, expansion, or capital improvements; operating use of Internet; and e-commerce; and employer-paid benefits.

Using your phone and fax machine on the same line

If you have a phone and fax machine on the same line, you can set up your Ooma device. This setup is great if you don't use your fax machine often and if you usually send faxes, but don't receive them. To get started, you still need the following equipment:

- A standard phone splitter
- Your fax machine
- Two phone cords

Plug the phone splitter into the PHONE port of your Ooma device. Connect one of your phone cords to your telephone and the other to your fax machine's phone input, as shown in the image below.

Note: If you are using an Ooma Hub setup, it is recommended that you connect your fax machine directly to the Ooma Hub and not to an Ooma Scout.

If you don't want your call to be picked up by the fax machine, you should turn the auto-answer mode on your fax machine off by putting it in manual mode. If you prefer to leave auto-answer on, you may want to set your machine up to have a long delay before pickup in order for you to answer your voice calls. You may need to refer to your fax machine's user manual for more information on how to do this.

This is a test to make sure all is work, please don't be alarmed.

Thank you, and have a nice day

4 CREW WORK SCHEDULE - Bldg 6 / Bldg 7 / Bldg 25

Steden vol met feestvierders

RUSWAK- Verschillende steden hebben zaterdagochtend al vol met bezoekers van de Oranjedagen, met de politiekorpsen melden vrijwel overal een rustige nacht. Alleen in Amsterdam en Leiden was het drukker dan gewoonlijk.

De gemeente Amsterdam kiest terug op een drukke, maar gezellige nacht. Koningin Máxima kwam naar schatting tussen 800.000 en 1 miljoen mensen bij elkaar. De politie heeft overlast als vuurwerk, buitenmeubilair, afval en dergelijke dus.

"De drukte concentreerde zich in de Jordaan en op de pleinen", aldus de woordvoerster. Ze vindt het Rembrandtplein, Leidseplein en vooral het Museumplein voor Hare Majesteit de Koningin-dag het mest.

Op het laatstgenoemde plein waren op het Museumplein 150.000 bezoekers, volgens de organisatie. De Amsterdamse driedaagse, tot 21.00 uur vandaag de hoogte.

Aanhoudingen

Over het aantal aanhoudingen gemaakt in de dag kon de woordvoerster zelfde nog niet veel zeggen, maar tot zijn er zeker meer dan honderd.

De politie heeft gedurende de avond nog als "krap te zijn aantallen te meld'ren. Vele mensen de dag nog niet voorbij", aldus een politiewoordvoerder.

Rotterdam

De politie Rotterdam heeft zaterdag niets over dat hiërs het afgelopen weekeinde iets het meer dan de vele drukte de Koningsdag in de binnenstad te komen. Dat hiërt een woordvoerder gemeld.

"Het aantal bezoekers in de stad is niet bekend, maar ze komen van rijne alkemaal uit de regio", legt hij uit. "We willen grote problemen dat de wagen rond de stad en in de binnenstad graag hiet zijn. De politie schreef tevenmeers derhalve niet de bier naar Rotterdam te komen."

De ANWB meldt dat het verder zaterdag "zeer rustig" op de Nederlandse wegen is. En de zuidenaren lijken te slapen een paar uur later dan zullen, zeker den woordvoerder.

Eindhoven

Over Eindhoven gaf de politie het gisteravond niet meer te komen "Eindhoven is vol" [illegible] de politie.

Koninginnedag in Eindhoven is al jarenlang een groot feest. Vorig jaar kwamen er 120 duizend bezoekers.

The NAME you think is yours is actually Crown property via Crown copyright as that NAME appears in the Crown's book of Registry.

In Canada, the Crown claims copyright "... where any work is, or has been, prepared or published by or under the direction or control of Her Majesty or any government department..." as per Copyright Act R.S., 1985, c. C-42, s. 12; 1993, c. 44, s. 60.

Use of the Crown owned NAME/ person without a licence from the Crown opens any offender to "fraudulent use" and "infringement of copyright" of Crown property. Fraud is a criminal offence as per Criminal Code R.S., 1985, c. C-46, s. 380. Infringement of Copyright is an offence with liabilities as per Copyright Act R.S., 1985, c. C-42, s. 27.

Adobe Acrobat PDF Files

Adobe® Portable Document Format (PDF) is a universal file format that preserves all of the fonts, formatting, colours and graphics of any source document, regardless of the application and platform used to create it.

Adobe PDF is an ideal format for electronic document distribution as it overcomes the problems commonly encountered with electronic file sharing.

- Anyone, anywhere can open a PDF file. All you need is the free Adobe Acrobat Reader. Recipients of other file formats sometimes can't open files because they don't have the applications used to create the documents.
- PDF files always print correctly on any printing device.
- PDF files always display exactly as created, regardless of fonts, software, and operating systems. Fonts, and graphics are not lost due to platform, software, and version incompatibilities.
- The free Acrobat Reader is easy to download and can be freely distributed by anyone.
- Compact PDF files are smaller than their source files and download a page at a time for fast display on the Web.

Terms and Conditions

1. CHANGES IN THE WORK. Should the Owner contemplate any construction besides or any public body or agency or direct any modification or addition to the work covered by this contract, this contract price shall be adjusted accordingly.

2. EXTRA WORK AND CHANGE ORDERS. Extra Work and Change Orders become part of the contract once the order is prepared in writing and signed by the parties prior to the commencement of any work covered by the new change order. The order must describe the scope of the extra work or change, the cost to be added or subtracted from the contract, and the effect the order will have on the schedule of progress payments. Failure to have written authorization shall not be deemed fatal to the collection of the extra work.

3. RESPONSIBILITIES OF THE PARTIES. Each party shall promptly notify the Owner of (a) substantive or hazardous visual conditions at the site differing materially from those ordinarily encountered and generally recognized as inherent in work of the character provided for in this contract, Owner as advised with shall not for any expense incurred due to such conditions. The Owner is responsible to supply water, gas, sewer and electrical utilities unless otherwise agreed to in writing. Electricity and water to the site is necessary. Owner agrees to allow easy access, adequate space, and access to the property sufficient for the movement of personnel and construction facilities. The Owner is responsible for having sufficient funds to complete with this agreement. This is a main consideration unless otherwise specified. The Owner is responsible to remove or protect any personal property and Contractor is not responsible for it or for any driveways, lawns, shrubs, etc. The Owner will point out and warn of live property lines to the Contractor.

3. DELAYS. Contractor agrees to start and diligently pursue work through to completion, but shall not be responsible for delays for any of the following reasons: failure of the sequence of all necessary building permits within a reasonable length of time, funding or lenders disbursement of funds loan funding, general or extra acts of neglect or act/ action of Owner or Owner's employees or Owners agent, acts of God, storms or inclement weather, strikes, lockouts, boycotts or other labor union activities, hazardous Work ordered by Owner, acts of public agency, riots or civil commotion, inability to secure material through regular unrequired channels, imposition of governmental priority or allocation of materials, failure of Owner or other payments when due, or delay caused by inspection or expenses ordered by the inspectors of architect, governmental bodies, or the acts of independent contractors, or hostilities, or other causes beyond Contractor's reasonable control.

4. PLANS & SPECIFICATIONS. If plans and specifications are prepared for this job, they shall be attached to and become part of the agreement.

5. CONTRACTOR'S RESPONSIBILITIES AND LIMITED WARRANTY. The Contractor agrees to furnish the materials for the job listed and to employ workers professional manner. All materials furnished under this Agreement shall be construction grade and meet industry standards. Where brand names have been specified, Contractor may select substitutes which such substitutes are due to unavailability or other circumstances beyond Contractor's control. All substitutions shall be equal in quality and character to the selections previously specified. The liability of the contractor for defective materials or installation is hereby limited to the replacement or restoration of said defective materials, and/or installation, and no other claims or consequential reimbursement shall be made upon or allowed against the contractor. This limited warranty extends only to owner and is not transferable. There is no implied warranty by or responsibility on any implied warranty of fitness for any particular purpose. There are no warranties of merchantability implied which extend beyond the descriptions within this paragraph 5. The warranty shall terminate one year from final billing completion or the date of the completion, whichever is First. Note, that equipment, assemblies, or waste generated by contractor, included in this contract are only installed subject to the manufacturer's warranty or guaranty, and not contractor's. To the extent permitted by applicable law, all warranties given by manufacturers pertaining to materials used by contractor in connection with the project will be passed through and inure to the benefit of owner.

6. SUBCONTRACTS. The Contractor may subcontract portions of the work to qualified subcontractors. Owner shall approve all subcontractors, but

7. PERMITS, FEES AND ASSESSMENTS. Contractor shall pay the taxes and fees for licenses, certificates and permits, and shall procure all permits, licenses and other authorizations necessary for the carrying out of this contract, and shall pay all charges and fees, and give all notices necessary and incidental to the due and lawful prosecution of the work. Owner shall pay all required building permits, but Owner will pay additional fees, assessments or charges (if any) that are required by any governmental body or agency as a condition to (a) the issuance of building permits, (b) the granting of zoning variances, (c) the approval of subdivision maps or plot plans, or (d) the final inspection and/or issuance of a certificate of occupancy, and (e) the construction, installation or furnishing of any improvements or facilities required to be furnished to the property, including, but not limited to, any fees for off-site improvements, dedications of land for public purposes, or payments in lieu thereof, and any charges for water, sewer, or other utility hook-up charges and tap fees.

8. INSURANCE AND DEPOSITS. Owner will procure at Owner's expense and before [illegible] hereunder fire insurance with extended coverage, vandalism and malicious mischief endorsements, in an amount [illegible] to cover the full insurable value thereof. If any, payable to any beneficiary under such

Many of the newer computing devices have wireless capabilities built in. If your computing device has wireless built in, simply enter the WPA2 KEY and ESSID values located on the bottom of the Wireless Gateway into the appropriate fields as directed by your laptop user guide.

*Use your actual values here and keep for your records.

If your computing device does not have built in wireless capabilities, you can purchase an 802.11n, 802.11g or 802.11b wireless card. Once you successfully install your 802.11n, 802.11g, or 802.11b card, you will need to enter the WPA2 KEY and ESSID values located on the bottom of the Wireless Gateway into the appropriate fields as directed by your wireless adaptas software.

Note: The WPA2 key and ESSID may also be found by viewing the Internet Explorer WEB page. The WPA2 key provides the security for the wireless gateway. The ESSID is the name of your gateway network.

You will be able to connect multiple wireless computing device(s) to the internet at the same time.

rope, dirty danced, French romanced, fucked, farted, fought, shot the moon, and drove big trucks.

I've been to Maine, Spain, Spokane, and Fort Wayne, seen three World's fairs, been around the world twice, looked danger in the face, and seen goats fuck in the marketplace.

. . .But, I ain't never seen no shit like the shit that goes on around this place.

that will guide you in future troubleshooting. This option is available in different places on different products, consult the product User's Guide for specific steps.

1. Send a one page black and white text fax to 1-888-hpfaxme (1-888-473-2963).
2. When your fax is received by the HP Test Fax Service, we will generate a return fax to you within five minutes confirming that we received your fax. This verifies that you can both send and receive a fax with your fax machine.

If you do not receive a return fax within 5-7 minutes, there may be a problem with the setup of your fax machine. Consult the user manual that came with the product for proper setup and configuration.

NOTE.

The most common cause of failure is that the fax number set in the Fax Header on the machine does not match the number of the phone line connected to the fax. Also ensure that the fax header contains the full 10-digit telephone number of the fax machine, including the area code.

TZU THÉ
REVOLUTIONIZING THE GREEN TEA EXPERIENCE

Check out Booth #4448 at this year's Winter Fancy Food Show to find Tzu Thé's 100% Natural, EGCG Rich Green Tea, Nutrition Bars and Innovative Accessories

(Atlanta GA)- This year the tea market reached a whopping 5 1 billion dollars in sales Inevitably leading to an immense amount of specialty gourmet, supermarket natural foods and gift basket buyers trying to get their hands on a piece of this golden pie However what will truly make a tea stand out in this overcrowded market is not only quality but versatility and convenience When looking for such a tea look no further than Tzu Thé at Booth #4448 at the NASFT Fancy Food Show in San Francisco. With their world class packaging Tzu Thé offers healthy convenient and fashionable green tea products for any lifestyle, making it truly "revolutionary "

Tzu Thé's beautiful innovative and unique packaging will draw the consumer's eye directly to this product on the shelves Tzu Thé is the first green tea company to offer the single-serving T-POD™ filled with premium loose dry green tea leaves, that are pesticide-free and packed full of EGCG These convenient individual tea pods make drinking green tea easy for consumers on-the-go For even more convenience Tzu Thé has introduced a line of accessories. The first is the T Buddy™ a "Two Headed" portable tea bottle with a built-in infuser that doubles as a tea mug and a tea pot for hot or cold beverages on the go The second is TZ-GO a steeping device that snaps on to standard 12oz and 16oz hot paper cups

Tzu Thé has also combined all the health benefits of green tea with the popularity and convenience of food bars, creating the innovative T-Bar™ The T-Bar™ is a raw whole food green tea nutrition bar that has been cold processed promoting optimum enzyme activity These vegan-friendly bars contain

[1] The most potent form of antioxidant, providing health benefits that may help to reduce risks of cancer and tumors, lower cholesterol, help with digesting excess fat, and even protect against the common cold virus.

Loading Paper

You can print documents and photos on a variety of paper types and sizes. For details, see page 5. (For instructions on loading envelopes, see your online User's Guide.)

1. Open the paper support and pull up the extensions. Then pull out the output tray extension and flip up the paper stopper.

Note:
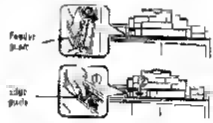
If you are using legal-size paper, do not raise the paper stopper.

2. Squeeze the edge guide as you slide it all the way to the left. (If the feeder guard is in the way, flip it forward.)



3. Load paper against the right edge and behind the tab with the glossy or printable side face up. (Load letterhead or pre-printed paper top edge first.)

Always load paper short edge first, even if you're using landscape mode.

Testing Your HP Fax Machine with the HP Fax Test Service

Skip to content

Introduction

This animated will before you in testing your HP Fax machine using the HP Fax Test Product

Print this document for easy reference by clicking the Printable Version link in the upper right corner of this page.

Test your fax machine

To test the capability of your fax machine, found the animated below

NOTE: Be sure that your phone number is not Caller ID blocked by your telephone company prior to attempting to send and receive a fax. Pressing *82 before dialing the tell that number will override the Caller ID blocking feature in most cases. Other option company services can prevent your from receiving a fax, including call's mail, call waiting, or call forwarding features

NOTE: Document written hooking a fax/scan, it is good practice to set the document/Reports option to Sunny Error before performing a that fax. This way, even if the sent the fails, an error code will be generated that will guide you to future troubleshooting. This setup is available in different places on written products, consult the product User's Guide for specific steps

1. Send a one page black and white test fax to 1-888-hpfaxone (1-888-473-2993).
2. When your fax is received by the HP Test Fax Service, we will generate a faxed fax to you within the written confirming that we received your fax. This verifies that you can both send and receive a fax with your fax machine.

If you do not receive a faxed fax within 5-7 minutes, there may be a problem with the setup of your fax machine. Consult the user manual that came with the product for proper setup and configuration.

NOTE: The most common cause of failure is that the fax number set in the Fax Header on the distinctive-rings notwithstanding the written of the phone fax connected to the fax. Also, ensure that the fax header contains the full 10-digit telephone written of the machine including the area code.

For more information or assistance, click Onward HP at the top of this page.

First Google Placement Campaign Page

Hello,

Per your request I have reviewed your website in detail and there are many improvements that should be done so the site appears on the first page of Google.

The SEO (Search Engine Optimization) has almost no keywords to match the latest requirements from Google Analytics. My suggestion would be is to clean up your pages, and we will load all the necessary key words to match your website. The best way to handle this is to copy the site and launch the site and keywords onto it's own server so that we are able to create you thousands of web crawlers so Google picks up the site. We provide the server at no cost to you and we also absorb the hosting fees so you would save on what ever you are spending presently. The Google program is $89.00 for four key word phrases, $169.00 for eight key word phrases per month and we guarantee you first page exposure on Google in 30 days. Then monthly we keep positioning your site so you stay on the first pages of the engines ahead of your competition.

We handle over 192,000 sites in 14 countries and we pride ourselves in having a 100% retention rate from our clients once we get them to the first page of the engines.

There may be a need for us to also lay the website out more Google friendly and there is no charge for that either. Google changes their rules daily and we always have to tweak the site to abide to Google requirements.

In addition any normal changes that you would want done to the site in the normal course of business we would modify for you at no charge. We have a full staff of designers to handle any design or text changes that you may need.

Please feel free to reach out to me at 1-800-764-5360 and I would be more then happy to go over the campaign with you.

If you would like me to reach out to you at a specific time just fax back to 973-255-4808 and let me know the time you would like to go over it and I will make the arrangements for the presentation for you.

Sincerely,
Michael

On HOV lanes vehicles will have to contain three people between 5 a.m. and 11 p.m. to avoid $110 fines and 3 demerit points.

on the toilet, though Therefore, bending over resulted in me placing my head above my now slightly-opened legs, positioned in between my knees and waist Also directly above my pants which were now pulled down to a point just midway between my knees and my ankles Oh, did I mention that I was wear ng not just pants, but sweat pants with elastic on the ankles

In one mighty push, some three pounds of macaroni and beef, two or three Cokes, and a couple of Big Fat Yeast Rolls were deposited in my pants on the inside with no ready exit at the bottom down by my feet

In the next several seconds there were a handful of farts, a couple of turds and the event ended yet I was now sitting there with my pants full of vomit my back covered in shit that had bounced off the toilet, spattered on three ceramic tiled walls to a height of about five feet and still had enough force to come back at me, covering the back of my shirt with droplets of liquid shit All while thick shit was spread all over my ass in a ring curiously in the shape of a toilet seat

And there was no fucking toilet paper!

What could I do but laugh I must have sounded like a complete maniac to the guy who then wandered into the bathroom He actually asked if I was OK since I was laughing so hard I must have sounded like I was crying hysterically I calmed down just enough to ask him if he would get the manager And told him to have the manager bring some toilet paper When the manager walked in he brought the toilet paper with him, but in no way was prepared for what happened next I simply told him that there was no way I was going to explain what was happening in the stall but that I needed several wet towels and I needed him to go ask CatScratch to come help me I told him where we were sitting and he left At that point I think he was probably assuming that i had pissed just a bit in my pants or something similarly benign

About two minutes later CatScratch came into the bathroom not knowing what was wrong and with a certain amount of worry in her voice I explained to her (still laughing and having trouble getting out words) that I had a slight accident and needed her help Knowing that I had experienced some close calls in the past, she probably assumed that I had laid down a small turd or something and just needed to bring the car around so we could bolt immediately Until I asked her,

Good Morning!

YOUR BABY'S BIRTH CERTIFICATE
What You Need to Know

Congratulations! You are about a name your new baby and give us important information for your child's birth certificate. You've probably been thinking about a name for months, but do you realize how important the other information on a birth certificate is?

The birth certificate is a legal document that will prove your child's identity, age, parents, and U.S. citizenship. For example, a birth certificate may be needed by your child to enter school, play sports, apply for a driver's license, and get a passport. For this reason, it is very important that the information you give us is new about you, baby, yourself and your baby's father is complete accurate and correct. The Office of Vital Records is also responsible for reviewing the data presented on the birth record to ensure the information is collected and recorded accurately according to the federal standards.

But birth certificates have other important uses, too. Medical information provided by doctors on birth certificates is studied to learn the best ways of keeping expectant mothers and newborns healthy. For example, studying data on birth certificates helped doctors learn that smoking in pregnancy can cause lower birth weight babies, and that caring for cystic during pregnancy can reduce some serious birth defects. We also use birth certificates to count the number of births in each state and in the U.S. each year, and to gather statistics about these births.

The Arizona Department of Health Services' Office of Vital Records is always working to make sure the information you provide is protected. The Office of Vital Records is also responsible for keeping each birth certificate safe, secure and private. Vital Records will issue certified copies of the birth certificate only to those who are authorized under the law to request them. We make sure that birth certificate information used for research does not include any personal information about you, your baby or your baby's father. You can also help to keep your child's birth certificate safe and secure by following these simple rules.

- Never sign a blank birth certificate worksheet
- Always check over the information you have filled out to make sure it is complete and correct before you sign it.
- When you receive a certified copy of the birth certificate, check it immediately to see that it is complete and correct. Make any corrections as soon as possible. Sometimes data entry errors are made by the birth recorder at the hospital when entering the birth record into the electronic birth system. Contact the birth recorder and ask for the worksheet to be reviewed. If the error was on the part of the hospital, the hospital will submit a correction letter to Vital Records to correct the error. If it was determined it was not to be a hospital error, please visit our website at www.azdhs.gov/vitalrecords/ to review the requirements to make changes to birth records. You may also contact your nearest Vital Records office using the list provided on the website. The address and phone number to the State Office of Vital Records is listed below.
- Keep any certified copies of the birth certificate in a safe place.
- Make sure any certified copies that are sent by mail for official purposes (such as applying for a passport) are returned to you.
- Never give anyone else your child's birth certificate for any purpose.
- Never alter anything on a certified copy of a birth certificate.

If you have any questions about your baby's birth certificate, please contact us as shown below.

Step 3 Make a Test Call Using OBiTALK

At any time, you may place a test call to the OBi Number below

OBiTALK Test No

Dial 9 followed by: 222 222 222

Your OBi is ready to make FREE calls to other OBi endpoints using the OBiTALK network. On the bottom of your unit, you will see a 9-digit OBi Number. This is your OBi Number. Give this number to your friends, family and colleagues so they can call you from their OBi device or using the OBiON iPhone and Android apps for smart phones.

To use the OBiTALK network, all you have to do is install your OBi, pick up the phone and then call your friends by dialing *9 and their nine-digit OBi Number

Step 4 Set-Up an OBiTALK Account Then Add Your OBi to the Account

Go to www.obitalk.com

Register for an OBiTALK account
This will allow you to easily activate devices and add any commercial VoIP services used with your OBi

The first time you log-in to OBiTALK, a pop-up window will appear allowing you to add your device.

Click "Yes" to add Your OBi Device to the OBiTALK Dashboard. After adding your device, you will be able to set up voice services and other configuration information. Multiple devices may be added to a single account.

Follow the on-screen instructions to add your OBi device to your OBiTALK account.

Once added, you will be directed to the Device Configuration page.
- Set your OBi display name, time zone, and daylight savings values.
- Select the "Save Changes" button

Step 5 Set-Up VoIP Services

After you register and add your OBi device at www.obitalk.com, the OBi Device Configuration page will help you set up commercial VoIP services such as the Google Voice™ communication service.

Do this by selecting the Google Voice Set-Up button. You may also select from any one of the other listed service providers. If your service is not there, you may use the Generic Service Provider option.

Generally, all you will need to set-up a service is the User Name and Password for the service.

Note: You will need to choose what phone port is to be used with the selected service. By default, both phone ports - Phone 1 & Phone 2, will work with the first service you initially configure on your OBi202.

How to Get Support & Learn More

Visit Our Web Site at: www.obitalk.com/support.html

Here You Will Find:
- Frequently Asked Questions
- Support Forum - Get a Question Or Comment? Post It at the Forum
- Tutorials, Tips & Wizards - Learn About & Get the Most from Your OBi
- Downloads & Documentation - OBi Software & Documentation

Or Text Support at support@obitalk.com. Please Provide Your OBi Number.

Compliance & Safety Information

Dial 911 for E911/Call for Emergency Calls or Contacting Emergency Services
The customer is not expected to be able to call emergency services, like 911, 112, 999, 000.

For Repair use only. Non-insulation connections within connecting to a power supply. The primary plug is the main means for accessing the AC power so that is the main method to disconnect power from the device. Short Hazard: Do not operate near flames or similar heat. Do not work with the device during periods of lightning periods. Do not touch bare or end of cell phone cables or bare sockets.

Disposition: Only an analog connection or fax machine should be connected to the OBi PHONE port. Do not connect a Modem from the PHONE port to a computer port connect by the phone company. Doing so may cause damage to the OBi and device.

This equipment has been tested to Class B digital limits in accordance with the specifications in the FCC rules. This product does not cause harmful interference with and 99/336/EEC Approval

CE FC

How to enter the Factory Reset:
1. Power on the OBi device.
2. Inside the Factory Reset button inside hole by the Reset of the OBi. It is a smaller size (a little longer than the others) just below and to the left of the Reset OBi on the product label.
3. Using a paper clip, or similar instrument, depress the button inside the hole for 15 seconds.
4. The Power LED will flash red. This indicates you may depress the button and the OBi will now be reset to factory default.

OBi Device Manager Home Page Accept
1. From a phone Accept to the OBi, dial *9 to access the OBi config attendant.
2. Choose # to hear the IP address to the OBi.
3. Enter the OBi IP address in a web PC internet web the address window.
4. When prompted, enter admin for username & admin for password.

Windows® Fax and Scan

One place to scan and fax your documents

FAX: You can send and receive faxed documents on your computer without using a fax machine. You can also print, e-mail, or save a copy of your faxes.

To get started:

1. Connect a phone line to your computer.

   If your computer needs an external modem, connect the phone to the modem, and then connect the modem to your computer.

2. On the toolbar, click New Fax.

3. Follow the instructions in the setup wizard to connect to a fax modem, and then, when you're finished, create your fax.

To connect to a fax server, or one of a modem, connect your system administrator. For more help with faxing, click the Help button on the toolbar.

SCAN: After you add a scanner to your computer, you can preview documents or pictures before you scan them, and then adjust your scan settings for better results. You can also fax or e-mail scanned files to someone else.

To get started:

1. Connect your scanner to your computer by following the instructions that came with your scanner, and then place a document or picture on the scanner.

2. In Windows Fax and Scan, at the bottom of the left pane, click Scan.

3. On the toolbar, click New Scan.

4. Choose the scan settings you want to use, and you're ready to scan.

RoHS Information

Dell® strives to be environmentally responsible. Many times you may also have heard the phrase "lead-free" used in this same context. However, when "lead-free" does not fully describe scope of RoHS. Dell does not use the lead-free and instead uses RoHS Compliant.

RoHS compliance means that the product in question is compliant to the new European Union standard governing the export of products that may contain certain hazardous materials. The standard is scheduled to go into force in July 2006 timeframe. Some of the first Dell™ systems that meet this standard may in fact be. This compliance ensures that our products are to standard at the time of manufacturing in the European region.

Certain states in the United States either have or are considering similar ordinances regarding these substances, and these ordinances for the most part mirror the E.U. standard. California was one of the first states to pass this legislation.

The substances that fall under this standard and are to be regarding include the following:

- Lead
- Mercury
- Cadmium
- Hexavalent Chromium
- Polybrominated biphenyls (PBBs)
- Polybrominated diphenyl ethers (PBDEs)

The does not mean that the products that ship are completely free of these substances (in some cases they may be), but that they adhere to the limit placed by the regulation (~ 1% by weight of each raw material in the product).

The OptiPlex™ 745 is 100% RoHS compliant.

III 96-00-1-I ADSL POTS Splitter Module

Installation Instructions

Basic Operation

The III 96 Series ADSL POTS Splitter Module uses a standard digital subscriber loop between customer and central office service port for III's Splitter Module is equipped with a customer test jack (see Figure 1). The customer can use his/her telephone to make a voice telephone call, just as he/she would if there were no ADSL service. The central office can also test the customer loop from the central office. This is the only time the customer is disengaged (both DSL and POTS services) from the service office.

Installing ADSL POTS Splitter Module

1. Remove the Splitter Module from plastic bag and inspect it for damaged leads with an ordinary eye. Splitter Module
2. Hold the Splitter Module with the cover point toward you.
3. Locate the power side edge and the disconnect on the bottom cavity.
4. Engage the right and left edges under the clinch (See, figure 1)
5. Push the fold side until the unit has locked snugly closed.

Splitter Module Wiring

Three telephone voice (POTS) pairs and one DSL line can be connected to a single Splitter Module. The one other has the option of installing a 710 Housing Jack into the customer side (see fig. See figure 1).

1. When installing the first pair of customer telephone wiring, always begin with the broken terminating clothes (see Figure 1)
2. Do not cut the wire that you have to be terminated to Splitter Module.

   Caution. To reduce the risk of personal injury insert a [illegible] or other [illegible] before making any wiring connections.

3. Drain termination (green wire connection) over Hub connector.
4. Insert and bar under TIP (TIP) & RING (RING) wires (blue striped TIP wire is positive, blue connector identification is for further detail)
5. Open customer access by pressing Splitter Module
6. Left off Splitter Module catches to the open position as shown (see figure 2)
7. Place wires around customer cavity area
8. Start wiring from the bottom hub socket
9. Hold the customer wires telephone wires between thumb and index finger together. (TIP wire always between 6 wires)

   Note: If the shield be shaved to the corresponding hooks. Once wire in the TIP (TIP) labeled wire inside a clip. Each wire in the RING (RING) labeled wire in the

10. Insert wires into wire guides at the same time until they bottom out.
11. While holding wires in wire guides, terminate on one of the teeth (choose one for all the way)
12. Terminate additional wire pairs in more right and upper left corners as required
13. Terminate the DSL customer wire pair at upper right hole only
14. Arrange all modem wire in the down position and close customer service cover.

12A-1.0161 Sales and Use Tax on Services; Sale for Resale.

(1)(a) A tax is imposed on the sale at retail or use in this state of the nonexempt past or and services described in Rule 12A-1.009, F.A.C., nonresidential cleaning services described in Rule 12A-1.051, F.A.C., and duties on hospital professional and other assistants' services described in Rule 12A-1.0092, F.A.C. The tax is imposed at the rate of 6 percent of the total sales price or rental price of the service. The tax shall be computed on each taxable sale or use of a service but for purposes of limiting the amount of tax that the same shall exhaust each and every purchase, sale or use of a service. The charge for services performed within this state but used or consumed outside this state by the purchaser is exempt from tax.

(b) As for purposes of this rule, a service shall mean those services enumerated in paragraph (a) above.

(2)(a) The tax on services shall apply to the use of a taxable service purchased within or outside this state when the primary benefit of the service is used or consumed in this state and at the time of purchase the sales tax could not be or was not imposed. The primary benefit of the service is presumed to be used or consumed in Florida and subject to use tax when:

1. The real property or tangible personal property is in Florida. If the service is applied to or otherwise directly or indirectly related to the tangible personal property, or

2. The place of permanent location of tangible personal property is in Florida, if the service is applied to or otherwise directly or indirectly related to the tangible personal property, or

a. The direct result of the service applies to activities of the purchaser in Florida, or the service is provided to real property or tangible personal property or

c. The service is performed for or passes by sale the estate in a dwelling, whose location is real residential property in Florida.

(3) For the purposes of subsection (2) above, a purchaser shall be considered a purchaser in Florida if he is in the process of his one ordinary setting for a months many majority of the sales in this state, or a permanent or temporary home, or in the time the purchase is made or if the purchaser is a limited liability partnership. An alien.

(c) For the purposes of paragraph (a) above, if the purchaser can demonstrate to the satisfaction of the Department that the benefit of the service was used or consumed outside of a state, the service shall be deemed used or consumed outside of the state. In determining whether the benefit of a service is used or consumed in this state the Department shall consider all of the facts and circumstances surrounding the transaction, and whether the result of the service only applies to or is for the use of property in Florida under Section 42 193 F.S. The seller of services subject to tax shall maintain a monthly log for each transaction involving the charge, the item was purchased in this state but used or consumed outside this state. The log must accurately the purchaser's:

1. Name, location and mailing address;

2. Federal employer identification number, if a business, or social security number, if an individual;

3. Identify the service sold, the price of the service, and the date of sale;

4. Tax reason for the exemption; and

5. The sales invoice number.

(3) Services by employees to their employers are exempt.

(a) In determining whether a person is an employee, the Department shall consider the following factors:

1. Whether the person is paid a wage or salary,

2. Whether the "employer" is required to withhold income tax from the person's wages or salary

3. Whether the "employer" is required to pay unemployment compensation on behalf of the person.

(b)1. However, if all of the factors mentioned above are present, the person is nevertheless not an employee if he is acting in the capacity of an independent contractor. A person may be an employee even if one or more of the factors are not present and he is not paid per unit basis or salary.

Example: Dr. is a dentist who works for Agency A. Agency A pays him $30,000 per year. Agency A withholds income tax from the salary paid to Dr. Agency A. Also Dr. is only hours and controls the details of his work. Dr. is over all by Agency A's owners, corporation board etc. Dr. is employee would pay for wage or salary. His services provided to Agency A are not a benefit to sales use.

(c)1. A person who provides services for a company on a full basis is not an employee of the company when the company exercises no direct control over the details of performance of that person's duties beyond general statements about the scope and nature of the person's obligations under the contract between the person and the company. In addition, where fees paid to that person are not subject to withholding taxes or social security taxes, that person is not considered an employee. The company therefore need not pay unemployment taxes are not subject to sales tax.

Hello!

This is a sample test file which is being sent to you as per your request via the Interpage FreeFax(sm) Service!

This service is intended to provide a preliminary evaluation as to the quality and timeliness of Interpage's subscription fax service(s)

If you review the cover sheet which was transmitted with this fax, you will note the first letter of the name you had indicated in the 'TO' field of the FreeFax request page. This letter serves to correlate the fax request which you had sent with this trial fax transmission result.

This file is a sample MS Word file, many other file types are supported

If you have any questions regarding Interpage's OutFax(sm) Service, including the FaxUnlimited(sm) service with no per-use or per minute charges, please feel free to contact us at:

Phone: +1 (510) 315-2750 9AM to 5:30 PM M-F Pacific Time
E Mail Intl-support@interpage.net
Web http://www.interpage.net

Thank you for your interest!

Notes: 1. Due to the malicious use of the FreeFax service, Interpage will no longer deliver personalized text messages; only the above fixed sample message will be transmitted. You may establish a trial account for test purposes by filling out the enclosed form on page 3 and clearly indicating a valid e-mail address and contact telephone number. Please call (510) 315-2750 for additional details.

2. This file is not a solicitation nor is it an offer. It was sent by a visitor to Interpage's web site who entered your destination number as a recipient of this test fax. A single destination may not receive more than two tests in a given week, however. If you find that someone is sending you faxes in a continuous and abusive manner, please call us at (510) 315-2750 and we will block your fax number from the FreeFax service.

Other Interpage Free service trials:

Does your voicemail call you?

Interpage VoiceMail will allow you to leave and retrieve caller to leave a message, send a WAV audio file of recorded messages to your phone or e mail, and direct call you and play the received messages at one or more telephone numbers!

Multiply the value of your old pager!

Like having a pager but need to receive messages on your cellphone or email as well? Want to have the same functionality as a pager on your cellphone without having to give out your cellphone number? Would you like to schedule and filter received pages and email to multiple cellphones, pagers, and email accounts? Try Interpage's DirectPage service!

Know for sure that urgent alerts are received!

OutVoice text-to-speech and WAV file telephone dialout/forwarding verifiably notifies landline and cellphones, and can prompt the recipient to confirm receipt so senders can be certain that alerts are received!

Dermatologists' Opinions

Chicago dermatologist Carolyn Jacobs, MD, calls the list "a good start," but says it isn't exclusive. "I think there are others out on that list that are good."

"I always recommend zinc oxide as an active ingredient," she says. She thinks it provides better coverage.

Jacobs tells patients to pick a broad-spectrum sunscreen that has an SPF of 30 or greater.

"I like spray sunscreens that is the ease of putting them on," she says. With sprays, though, she finds that people "tend not to put enough on. They really need to be spraying it on and rubbing it in."

Also, pay attention to expiration dates on sunscreens, she says. The chemicals will lose effectiveness over time."

Consumer Reports says it does not recommend spray sunscreens for children. Inhaling spray sunscreen can cause lung (http://www.webmd.com/lung/picture-of-the-lungs) irritation and, when inhaled, titanium dioxide (http://www.webmd.com/drug/drug-6350-titanium-tetrachloride-inhal.aspx) is a potential carcinogen, the report says.

"Anything that gets the public thinking about sun protection is good," says David J. Leffell, MD, the David Paige Smith professor of dermatology and surgery at Yale School of Medicine.

When his patients ask about sunscreen, Leffell says, "You don't need anything more than an SPF of 30. So don't spend a lot of money on a higher SPF unless you want to."

"Sunblocks," as he calls them, "are part of a total sun protection program," Leffell says. He also tells people to stay in the shade when possible, wear protective clothing, wear hats and sunglasses, and use umbrellas.

Leffell reports doing scientific advisory work for Coppertone.

2012 Federal Holidays

Federal law (5 U.S.C. 6103) establishes the following public holidays for Federal employees. Please note that most Federal employees work on a Monday through Friday schedule. For these employees, when a holiday falls on a nonworkday -- Saturday or Sunday -- the holiday usually is observed on Monday (if the holiday falls on Sunday) or Friday (if the holiday falls on Saturday).

|---|---|
| Monday, January 2* | New Year's Day |
| Monday, January 16 | Birthday of Martin Luther King, Jr. |
| Monday, February 20 | Washington's Birthday |
| Monday, May 28 | Memorial Day |
| Wednesday, July 4 | Independence Day |
| Monday, September 3 | Labor Day |
| Monday, October 8 | Columbus Day |
| Monday, November 12 | Veterans Day |
| Thursday, November 22 | Thanksgiving Day |
| Tuesday, December 25 | Christmas Day |

* January 1, 2012 (the legal public holiday for New Year's Day) falls on a Sunday. For most Federal employees, Monday, January 2, will be treated as a holiday for pay and leave purposes. (See section 3(a) of Executive order 11582, February 11, 1971.)

 This holiday is designated as "Washington's Birthday" in section 6103(a) of title 5 of the United States Code, which is the law that specifies holidays for Federal employees. Though other institutions, such as state and local governments and private businesses, may use other names, it is our policy to always refer to holidays by the names designated in the law.

 November 11, 2012 (the legal public holiday for Veterans Day), falls on a Sunday. For most Federal employees, Monday, November 12, will be treated as a holiday for pay and leave purposes. (See section 3(a) of Executive order 11582, February 11, 1971.)

Driving Tours

Driving the Panorama Route

This drive takes you past the Blyde River Canyon, the third largest canyon in the world, and the sheer 1,600m (5,248-ft.) drop from the Escarpment to the warm lowveld plains shimmering below. Hot air rising over this wall generates the heavy mists and high rainfall that, in turn, create the unique montane grasslands and riverine forests of the Blyde River Canyon Nature Reserve, which start just north of Graskop before broadening out to include the Blydepoort Dam, 60km (37 miles) north. To complete the Panorama Route as a circular trip (approximately 160km/99 miles), stopping for most of the view points and returning to either Sabie or Graskop, set aside a day.

As you follow the tour below, refer to the "Panorama Route & Sabie" map earlier in this chapter for more information.

To drive this route, take the R532 north out of Graskop before turning right on the R534. The first stop is the Pinnacle -- a thin 30m-tall (98-ft.) quartzite rock topped with trees that juts below the view point -- but God's Window, 4km (2 1/2 miles) farther, which offers the first view of the open lowveld plains is more impressive. (Wonderview is a variation of this and can be skipped if you're pressed for time.) The looping R534 now rejoins the R532. Turn left and look for the sign if you want to visit Lisbon Falls, which drop 37m (121 ft.). To continue on to Blyde River Canyon, turn right onto the R532, taking in the 48m (157 ft.) Berlin Falls on the way. If you're ready for refreshments, the Berlin Peacock Tavern (tel. 013/767-1085) lies on the way to the Berlin Falls -- aside from some spectacularly over-the-top baroque decor, the food is delicious, and according to the visitors book, even rival lodge-owners visit regularly.

Back on the R532, head north for Bourke's Luck Potholes (tel. 013/767-6019). Here gold-digger Bourke predicted that he would strike it lucky, but he found nothing in these large scooped formations, carved by the movement of pebbles and water in the swirling whirlpools created by the confluence of the Blyde and Treur rivers. Bourke was not the last person to be disappointed by the Potholes -- it's a long walk to look at them, and they reveal very little. Nor does the visitor center, which, in addition to some dry displays on the geology of the area, features a few dusty stuffed animals that look close to decomposing. The lichen trail is very easy and good for children. Gates open from 7am to 5pm, admission is R22 ($3/£1.50).

Some 20km (12 miles) north is the lookout for the Three Rondawels, by far the most impressive stop of the entire trip. The name -- which refers to the three circular hut shaped outcrops that are more-or-less opposite the lookout -- does nothing to describe the humbling size of what beckons. A sheer drop threatens to pull you off the precipice, thousands of feet below the Blyde River snakes its way through the canyon to the

Enable HP Web Services

NOTE: HP Web Services menu requires the printer to be connected to a network.

1. Once the printer is connected to a network, enter the printer's network IP address into a Web browser. To find the printer's IP address, refer to the printer's user guide, or reprint this page after the printer is connected to the network.

2. On the Web page that appears, click on the HP Web Services tab.

3. Review and accept the terms of use, and then click the Enable button.

HP ePrint

Print from Anywhere

HP's free ePrint service provides an easy way to print from e-mail, anywhere and anytime. Simply attach a file to an e-mail, and send it to this printer's e-mail address. The attachment will print automatically on this printer. Supported attachment file types include: pdf, jpg, tiff, and Microsoft Office(R) documents.

NOTE: Attachments may print differently than they appear in the software program which created them, depending on the original fonts and page options used.

Your Printer is Protected

To help prevent unauthorized e-mail, HP assigns a random e-mail address to your printer. Never publicize this address. HPC by Zoffoli does not respond to any sender. ePrint also provides industry-standard spam filtering and transforms e-mail and attachments into a print-safe format to reduce the threat of a virus or other harmful content.

NOTE: The ePrint service does not filter e-mails based on content, so it cannot prevent objectionable or copyrighted material from being printed.

HP ePrintCenter

Print Quality Check

Check that the dotted lines forming the four color blocks are all visible with no gaps. If OK, select (Yes) on the control panel. If gaps are visible, select (No) on the control panel to start the cleaning process and follow the prompts on the LCD.

This Brother Inkjet machine has been finely tuned to provide excellent, accurate and long lasting printed pages when using Genuine Brother Innobella(TM) ink.

The use of non-Brother inks in this machine may potentially result in inferior output quality, and/or machine damage.

Any required repairs for damages proven to result from using non-Brother inks in this machine may not be covered by the original machine limited warranty.

We strongly suggest you use only Genuine Brother Innobella(TM) inks when it is time for you to replace the ink cartridge(s).

apply what we've learned to new products like Gmail and Google Maps. Our hope is to bring the power of search to previously unexplored areas, and to help people access and use even more of the ever-expanding information in their lives.

3 Fast is better than slow.

We know your time is valuable, so when you're seeking an answer on the web you want it right away–and we aim to please. We may be the only people in the world who can say our goal is to have people leave our website as quickly as possible. By shaving excess bits and bytes from our pages and increasing the efficiency of our serving environment, we've broken our own speed records many times over, so that the average response time on a search result is a fraction of a second. We keep speed in mind with each new product we release, whether it's a mobile application or Google Chrome, a browser designed to be fast enough for the modern web. And we continue to work on making it all go even faster.

4 Democracy on the web works.

Google search works because it relies on the millions of individuals posting links on websites to help determine which other sites offer content of value. We assess the importance of every web page using more than 200 signals and a variety of techniques, including our patented PageRank™ algorithm, which analyzes which sites have been "voted" to be the best sources of information by other pages across the web. As the web gets bigger, this approach actually improves, as each new site is another point of information and another vote to be counted. In the same vein, we are active in open source software development, where innovation takes place through the collective effort of many programmers.

5 You don't need to be at your desk to need an answer.

The world is increasingly mobile: people want access to information wherever they are, whenever they need it. We're pioneering new technologies and offering new solutions for mobile services that help people all over the globe to do any number of tasks on their phone, from checking email and calendar events to watching videos, not to mention the several different ways to access Google search on a phone. In addition, we're hoping to fuel greater innovation for mobile users everywhere with Android, a free, open source mobile platform. Android brings the openness that shaped the Internet to the mobile world. Not only does Android benefit consumers, who have more choice and innovative new mobile experiences, but it opens up revenue opportunities for carriers, manufacturers and developers.

[8/9/12 3:19:46 PM] tom allain: yesterday dropbox was downloading 202GB
[8/9/12 3:19:53 PM] tom allain: I dont see it in there
[8/9/12 3:20:00 PM] Claudine Nichols: huh?
[8/9/12 3:20:56 PM] tom allain: oh... maybe you reorganized dropbox?
[8/9/12 3:21:02 PM] tom allain: I thought maybe I was getting the footage
[8/9/12 3:21:05 PM] tom allain: and i realizwd I could go through it
[8/9/12 3:21:12 PM] Claudine Nichols: nope
[8/9/12 3:21:17 PM] Claudine Nichols: they are sending it over tonight
[8/9/12 3:21:19 PM] Claudine Nichols: any specs?
[8/9/12 3:21:24 PM] Claudine Nichols: on how they should deliver
[8/9/12 3:22:07 PM] tom allain: dunno what the source is

Welcome to

Windows® Fax and Scan

One place to scan and fax your documents

FAX You can send and receive faxed documents on your computer without using a fax machine. You can also print, e-mail, or save a copy of your faxes.

To get started

1. Connect a phone line to your computer.

   If your computer needs an external modem, connect the phone to the modem, and then connect the modem to your computer.

2. On the toolbar, click New Fax.

3. Follow the instructions in the setup wizard to connect to a fax modem, and then, when you're finished, create your fax.

To connect to a fax server instead of a modem, contact your system administrator. For more help with faxing, click the Help button on the toolbar.

SCAN After you add a scanner to your computer, you can preview documents or pictures before you scan them, and then adjust your scan settings for better results. You can also fax or e-mail scanned files to someone else.

To get started

1. Connect your scanner to your computer by following the instructions that came with your scanner, and then place a document or picture on the scanner.

2. In Windows Fax and Scan, at the bottom of the left pane, click Scan.

3. On the toolbar, click New Scan.

4. Choose the scan settings you want to use, and you're ready to scan.

Use the options on the toolbar to fax, e-mail, print, or copy scans at any time. For more help with scanning, click the Help button on the toolbar.

Presumably, you want to test your fax machine by sending a fax from it and receiving a fax with it. Here's how to do both.

To test the send functionality of your fax machine, send a one-page fax to 1-510-545-0990 (a number in Northern California.) When it's finished transmitting, point your web browser to Fax Toy — it's a fun web site that displays whatever is faxed to that number. Within a minute, your fax should appear on the site. Click the thumbnail to see a large version.

To test the receive functionality of your fax machine, point your web browser to FaxZero: this site lets you send faxes for free to anywhere in the United States and Canada. Within a few minutes, your fax machine should ring — hopefully, it will automatically answer and spit out the test fax.

Welcome to the keep moving

where a desire to move better is all you need to begin!

If you have mild-to-moderate arthritis in your knees or hips, this guide may help you:

- Get active
- Become more active
- Reduce joint pain

The strengthening exercises on these pages are specially designed for stretch band use. Just grab hold of your stretch band and follow the easy steps. You'll be doing them in no time!

Remember to talk to your doctor before beginning or modifying an exercise regimen.

For more arthritis-friendly exercises, visit www.JustKeepMoving.com

Understanding Osteoarthritis

Osteoarthritis is a condition that affects your cartilage—the smooth tissue that cushions the ends of your bones when they meet to form a joint.

When you have osteoarthritis, your cartilage has started to wear away. That can make your bones rub together and make it harder to move them. For instance, your hips might feel stiff when you stand after sitting awhile. Or you might notice some "grinding" in your knees when you bend them.

WHAT CAUSES OSTEOARTHRITIS?

No one knows for sure why some people develop osteoarthritis while others don't. But certain things increase your risk, including:

- Aging
- Being overweight
- Having a past joint or nerve injury
- Repeatedly overusing certain joints
- Lack of physical activity

KEEP MOVING™ is for people who have been diagnosed with osteoarthritis.

Gun and Parasites WI

Gun & Parasites w/Gia: [illegible] Positive

Gun & Parasite Reporting is here:
The number of eggs, organisms, or the number in the entire slide (not per field). For each parasite reported.
1 rare = 1 egg or parasite in entire slide
1+ = 2 or 3 eggs or parasites / field
2+ = 4 to 9 eggs or parasites / field
3+ = 10 to 30 eggs or parasites / field
4+ = [illegible] eggs or parasites / field

Parasite #1 | Test [illegible] Detail

Giardia Cysts 2+

Detailed testing of [illegible] for the presence of [illegible] parasites. Results are reported as 1+, 2+, 3+, or 4+ depending on the number of parasites found in the sample. Parasites may be present, but only be present sporadically so [illegible] cannot rule out.

DULCE DE TORONJAS

Porciones: 4

Ingredientes:

- 3 toronjas cortadas en cuartos y peladas
- 2 tazas de azúcar morena
- 4 tazas de agua
- 1 rayita de canela
- 6 tazas de azúcar
- 2 cucharadas de jugo de limón

Instrucciones:

Separe la piel de la pulpa de la toronja y remójela en agua toda la noche, al cocinarla cámbiele el agua y cocínela por 10 minutos repita este procedimiento varias veces hasta que esté blanda. Cambie siempre el agua para evitar que se amargue. Cuando ya esté blanda y no muy amarga exprima los pedazos entre dos toallas de cocina para quitar el exceso de agua. Póngala con todos los otros ingredientes en una cazuela incluyendo las 4 tazas de agua revuélvalo y póngalo al fuego mojano hasta que se forme un almíbar

Para hacer este postre usted puede guardar la piel de la toronja que use en los desayunos, poniéndola en agua en el refrigerador hasta que se vayan a usar

Sírvalo con queso crema u otro de su preferencia

OS X Mountain Lion Send a Fax

You can fax from any application that supports sending documents to a printer. Here's how to send a fax from Preview. If you haven't set up a fax modem or fax service, see Set up a fax modem or fax service, above.

1. Choose File > Print.
2. Choose the PDF menu (it may say PDF), then choose Fax PDF. If Fax PDF isn't in the menu, choose Edit Menu. Click the plus sign (+) below the left column, then double-click Fax PDF in the list of services. Choose Fax PDF from the PDF menu.
3. Enter a fax number.
4. Enter the fax in any of the following ways:
   - Type the fax number in the Fax # field.
   - Type a name in the Contacts field. As you type, matching names from your Contacts list appear. Select a name.
   - To select a number from the Address Book, click the Edit button next to the Contacts field. Double-click a name in the Address Book list, then select a fax number from the menu that appears.
5. If your printer supports multiple paper trays, choose the tray you want to use from the Paper Feed menu.
6. If you want to include a cover page, select the Cover Page checkbox and choose a cover page style.
7. Click Fax in the lower-left corner of the Print dialog screen.

Depending on your network configuration, it may take a few minutes for your fax to be sent. You can check on the status of your fax by opening the Fax application in the Applications folder. Click the Sent button in the Fax application to see a list of faxes you've sent. If a fax failed to send, you can try sending it again by selecting it in the list and clicking the Resend button.

Receive a Fax

To receive faxes on your Mac, you must have a fax modem or fax service. If you're using your modem's phone line for faxes, you can't also use it for voice calls. If you have a separate phone line for faxes, you can receive faxes at any time. If you share a phone line for faxes and voice calls, you must turn on Fax Receiving in the Fax application's preferences and specify how many rings to wait before answering a fax call.

To receive faxes on your Mac:

1. Open the Fax application in the Applications folder.
2. Choose Fax > Preferences.
3. Select the Fax Receiving checkbox.
4. Choose how many rings to wait before answering a fax call. If you're using your modem's phone line for faxes and voice calls, choose a number greater than the number of rings you normally wait before answering a voice call. If you have a separate phone line for faxes, choose 1 ring.
5. Choose a folder to store received faxes in. Click the Set button to choose a folder other than the default Shared Faxes folder.
6. Choose a fax format. Choose PDF to receive faxes as PDF documents. Choose TIFF to receive faxes as TIFF documents.
7. Choose a fax modem or fax service. If you have more than one fax modem or fax service, choose the one you want to use for receiving faxes.

Now when a fax is received, it will be stored in the folder you specified. You can open it in the Fax application by clicking the Received button in the Fax application's toolbar. You can also open it in any application that supports opening PDF documents, such as Preview.

Installation Requirements

IMPORTANT--THIS IS AN AOSE PERMIT

IF YOU ARE NOT FAMILIAR WITH THIS TYPE OF PERMIT DO NOT CONTINUE- CALL 540-737-1003 FOR MORE INFORMATION ABOUT THIS PERMIT, INSPECTIONS, AND FEES

The AOSE must inspect the drainfield and all components prior to any portion being covered. There is a fee for each inspection. Make sure you and the owner are aware of these fees. Completion Statements will only be issued after all inspection fees are paid and all paperwork by the Installer/PE/O&M provider are received.

Field Pre-Construction is $150.00, if needed

- Drainfield to be installed by a DPOR licensed installer
- All systems to be installed 18" or shallower shall be hand-cleared and stumps shall be ground. All site work shall be done in dry weather and soil conditions
- All changes/modifications must be approved by the AOSE prior to the inspection – failure to follow permit may result in system not being approved or permit revocation.
- Please notify Dominion Soil Science as soon as possible for an inspection – 72 hours is appreciated
- Tanks & trenches must be left uncovered until inspection is completed. Trenches may be partially covered as long as both ends and the saddle are left open to check grade
- Polyurethane risers must be installed and brought to grade on tanks that will have more than 30" of backfill over them
- Water Softener system back flush discharge SHALL NOT be connected to the drainfield.
- Contractor must have all pages of the permit. The permit must be on site during installation
- Gutters & Foundation drains shall be diverted away from the tanks and the drainfield.
- Gravel-less systems are generally approved at a 1:1 ratio, however, please call to confirm the site is suitable for the components you intend to use

Pan Roasted Chanterelle-Gorgonzola Stuffed Chicken Breast

Recipe Courtesy of Kent & Kevin Rathbun

2 ounces bacon fat
1 tablespoons garlic minced
1 tablespoons shallot, minced
2 ounces yellow onion, minced
4 ounces chanterelle mushrooms
1/2 cup white wine
4 ounces gorgonzola bleu cheese
1 tablespoon basil, chopped
1/2 tablespoon oregano chopped
Kosher salt to taste
Cracked black pepper to taste

For the pan roasted chicken breast
2 (12-ounce) Airline chicken breast, split into 4 skin on
1 teaspoon kosher salt
1 teaspoon cracked black pepper
8 ounces chanterelle mushroom-gorgonzola mix
2 ounces canola oil

For the chanterelle mushroom-gorgonzola stuffing

In a medium hot sautepan add the bacon fat and saute garlic, shallot and onions until translucent.

Add chanterelle mushrooms and continue sauteing until tender. Deglaze with white wine

Chill and set aside

In a medium mixing bowl and cool chanterelle mushroom mix, gorgonzola, basil, oregano, salt and black pepper. Fold together until incorporated. Chill and set aside for later use.

For the pan roasted chicken breast:

Preheat the oven to 350 degrees.

With a boning knife, butterfly 4 chicken breasts. Stuff each breast with 2 ounces of chanterelle mushroom-gorgonzola mix then tie with butchers twine to ensure that it stays together

Season each chicken breast with salt and cracked black pepper

In a large hot saute pan and canola oil then lay the chicken in the pan skin side down. Sear for about one minute then turn over and continue cooking for 30 more seconds.

Place the entire pan in a 350 degree oven and roast until done. Serve with onion jus immediately innogy

RWE Česká republika a.s.
Limuzská 12/3135
100 98 Praha 10

Vážení

rádi bychom Vás informovali o nové podobě skupiny RWE v České republice. V rámci nového uspořádání koncernu se společnosti RWE působící na českém trhu staly součástí nové dceřiné společnosti innogy SE (s výjimkou RWE Supply & Trading CZ, a.s.)

Od července postupně zavádíme na český trh novou a bohatší značku innogy. Nyní je na řadě také vlastní přejmenování našich společností. Změna názvu obchodní firmy u všech našich společností nastane k 1. říjnu 2016.

Níže nalezněte seznam nových názvů firem:

| Stávající obchodní firma | Obchodní firma od 1. 10. 2016 |
|---|---|
| RWE Česká republika a.s. | innogy Česká republika a.s. |
| RWE Energie, s.r.o. | innogy Energie, s.r.o. |
| RWE Energo, s.r.o. | innogy Energo, s.r.o. |
| RWE Gas Storage, s.r.o. | innogy Gas Storage, s.r.o. |
| RWE Zákaznické služby, s.r.o. | innogy Zákaznické služby, s.r.o. |
| RWE GasNet, s.r.o. | GasNet, s.r.o. |
| RWE Distribuční služby, s.r.o. | GridServices, s.r.o. |
| RWE Grid Holding, a.s. | innogy Grid Holding, a.s. |
| RWE Group Business Services CZ, s.r.o. | innogy Business Services CZ, s.r.o. |
| RWE Teplárna Náchod, s.r.o. | innogy Teplárna Náchod, s.r.o. |

Dochází pouze ke změně názvů, IČO a sídla společností zůstávají beze změny.

Výjimkou je společnost innogy Gas Storage, s.r.o., jejíž nové sídlo se nachází na adrese Limuzská 3135/12, 108 00 Praha 10 - Strašnice.

Změna obchodního názvu našich společností nemá žádný vliv na práva a závazky, které pro smluvní strany vyplývají z již uzavřených smluv. Jedná se o pouhou změnu obchodní firmy nedochází k jakémukoli převodu či přechodu práv a není proto ani nutné jakkoli upravovat stávající smlouvy či jiné dokumenty.

Printing Your Return - TaxACT Online

For the security of your personal information entered on your TaxACT online return is only accessible by signing into your account and only by yourself. We cannot mail, fax, or email a paper or electronic copy.

Using your online account, the program will generate a Portable Document Format (PDF) file which can be viewed and printed from a PDF reader.

IMPORTANT: We must first have installed

1. Go to (Clicking the link will cause a new window).
2. In the upper right corner of the page, click on the green Sign In button.
3. Enter in your Username and Password for your current year's return. Click on Access Prior Year Returns as indicated below:

If you choose to print a prior year return, you will be prompted for the specific tax year's return you wish to access.

4. Sign in with your Username and Password.
5. Once the return is loaded, in the upper right of the page, click on the Print link.
6. Choose the print option from those below:

   Print a Page Return - This option will print all form displayed in the prior return by email.

   Print Return & Instructions - This option will print a copy of your return and the filing instructions. (Filing instructions will be available after your return has been transmitted to TaxACT)

7. Once you choose the form you wish to print and click on it, you will be given the instructions to "Press the link below to download your ..." and will indicate which form you are about to print.
8. Click on that link to open the return in PDF format.
9. Once the reader has loaded and the return is displayed, simply click the Print button within the reader program.

Printing Individual Forms

1. Follow the sign-in instructions in numbers 1-4 above.
2. Once the return is loaded, in the upper right of the page, click on the Print link.
3. Click on Print Individual Forms.

Gâteau au fromage

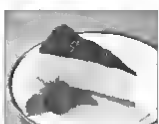
Ingredients

- 3 œufs
- 1½ de sucre
- 250 grammes de fromage à la creme Philadelphia
- 2 onces de crème 35%
- 500 ml de crème sûre
- vanille

Passer au melangeur



- 3 oeufs
- 1 tasse de sucre
- 250 grammes de fromage en crème
- 2 onces de creme 35%
- ¼ bouchon de vanille (ou au goût)

1. Déposer un fond biscuit Graham™ dans un moule rond (dont le bord se demoule)
2. Mettre le contenu du melangeur dans le moule.
3. Cuire au four à 375° de 30 à 45 minutes (ou jusqu'à ce que le centre soit presque pris)

Durant le temps de cuisson fouetter ensemble 500 ml creme sure et ½ tasse de sucre

Réfrigérer 3 heures ou jusqu'au lendemain

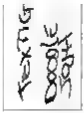
Random Stuff Sent From Your Fax Machine
Fax something interesting toll free to 1 888 877 1655 or 1 503-200-1390

Sort by: Most recent faxes | Most voted faxes | Most voted faxes

AdChoices ▶ ▶ Free Email to Fax ▶ Fax on Line ▶ Fax Service ▶ Fax over Internet



To the right are pages that folks have faxed us recently. Click any thumbnail to see the large version and rate it for interestingness.

You can fax something interesting to 1 888 877-1655 (your boss will never notice ... maybe) or 1 503 200-1390 (long distance to Portland, Oregon) and it should appear here within a couple of minutes. (This is a toll-free number if you're in the USA.) Keep it clean & legal.

Fax single-page documents with no cover sheet. If you fax more than one page only the last page will appear here. We try to snip off the top few pixels of the page where your company name and fax number should appear, but make no promises that this will actually work.

Privacy Policy. We hate spam and junk faxes, and will absolutely not send you any uncolicited e-mail or faxes. We won't share your information with marketers or anyone else.
